In Event Of May 1 Strike

Steel Firms Notify Mills To Prepare For Shutdown

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Steel companies have sent out preliminary instructions to their mills to prepare for a shutdown in the event of a steelworkers strike May 1, it was learned today.

The development came in the wake of reports that steel contract negotiators are badly bogged down over a 13-cent an hour difference of opinion.

There were no top-level talks scheduled for the day. However, negotiators for the United Steelworkers Union, who bargain with the 11-major steel companies, were meeting.

Informed sources said the industry rejected Tuesday as too costly a union offer to extend the present contract beyond the May 1 deadline for an 18-cent-an-hour pay hike. The union last week turned down an industry offer of a five-cent hourly raise.

"The disagreement is of such magnitude the parties aren't even in speaking distance of each other," said a source close to the negotiations.

Lending urgency to today's negotiations is a meeting Thursday of the USW's wage policy committee, which has the final word on contract matters. The committee can authorize a strike or an extension of the present pact.

The union several times has rejected industry proposals for an extension of the bargaining — suspended for two months because of the union's still unsettled presidential election.

The union is said to want an increase of about 14 cents an hour in wages or benefits plus 4 cents an hour in "catch up" money, which the USW feels steelworkers missed in the last two contracts.

Steelworkers average about $4.40 an hour in wages and fringe benefits.

U.S. Officials Take Gloomy View Of Steel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration officials are taking an increasingly gloomy view of steel contract negotiations since the United Steelworkers Union refused to swap a five-cent pay raise for a strike date postponement.

While still hopeful of an agreement that would postpone the May 1 deadline, sources here report both sides in the Pittsburgh talks appear to be taking a tougher stand.

"It's pretty tight right now," said one high administration source. "Everybody is mad at each other."

He said the hardening of attitudes on both sides stemmed from the Steelworkers' quick rejection of the industry's five-cent hourly pay-boost offer last week. The union had expected a much larger offer in exchange for extending steel contracts during further negotiations.

The administration is sticking to its belief that the strike date will be postponed, but now believes it may be an 11th-hour cliffhanger, with talks going right up to the present deadline.

This may require some strong prodding by high-level govern-

U.S.-Indian Ties Sink To Sub-Freezing

Aid Slated Despite Johnson Statement On Shastri Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten nations including the United States today pledge $1 billion to India's economic development, although U.S.-Indian relations have plummeted to sub-freezing levels.

Indian diplomatic sources said that Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri will be unable to come to the United States next fall and will defer the visit to Washington until it is convenient for him to do so.

This was the delayed reaction to President Johnson's sudden request last Thursday that Shastri and Pakistan President Mohammed Ayub Khan defer their visits to this country until next fall because Johnson was so occupied with congressional affairs and the problems of Viet Nam.

Indian officials have been highly critical of Johnson's Viet Nam policies.

"President Johnson apparently has had enough of foreigners telling him how to run the world," one diplomat remarked caustically. "The President, it seems, cannot tolerate foreign chiefs of state that he cannot handle like members of the Senate and the House of Representatives."

The Indian reaction was particularly irate because Indians felt that Johnson had asked Shastri not to come because he had been angered by actions of Ayub and felt he would have to treat the leaders of both rival nations equally.

Indian diplomatic sources here said the United States was the only country in the world that pursues a policy of doing to one country as you would do to the other.

An Indian source said the United States apparently thinks that if it gives $1 billion in assistance, it is able to buy friendship, but this is not the case.

U.S. Planes Hammer At Red Convoy

Results Of Strike In Viet Unknown, One Aircraft Lost

BULLETIN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force, Navy and Vietnamese planes staged at least four raids over North Viet Nam today, smashing at trucks, trains, boats, barracks and roads. All the attacks were relatively small, fast-moving jabs at Communist communications lines.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Navy planes struck through the night at Communist truck convoys in North Viet Nam. One plane was lost. Results of the strikes were not known.

Other U.S. and Vietnamese warplanes flew a number of missions against suspected Viet Cong concentrations inside South Viet Nam. Some of the heaviest strikes were in Quang Tin Province where Vietnamese forces were mauled Sunday and Monday by Viet Cong guerrillas.

Two A4 Skyhawks from the 7th Fleet carrier Hancock prowled Highway 1 north from the north-south border early today. They made passes at two trucks south of Dong Hoi, firing 20mm cannon. The pilots said they were unable to assess the damage, if any.

About an hour later, four more Skyhawks flew the same route and reported sighting more trucks, closer to the border. They strafed the vehicles with rockets and cannon fire and reported seeing a bright flash after one pass, possibly caused by a secondary explosion.

All of these planes returned safely to the Hancock. They reported light, sporadic antiaircraft fire at several places.

Five A4 Skyhawks from the carrier Midway were the first group of raiders out after dark Tuesday night. Supported by five F4 Phantom jets and F8 Crusaders, the Skyhawks struck at a truck convoy about 120 miles north of the 17th Parallel.

One of the planes was downed and the pilot was listed as missing.

At Tuesday Meeting

Commissioners Reject Rodak's Plea For Funds

The Hancock County Court of Commissioners Tuesday denied Sheriff Joe Rodak's request that it increase the $103,000 allotted his office in the 1965-66 budget and unanimously approved the budget.

The budget calls for expenditures of $672,600, down $29,000 from the previous one.

G. Thomas Battle, state tax commissioner, approved the budget, with one provision: He recommended that the $19,000 which had been earmarked for instituting a building fund for a new jail be designated as "repairs for the jail" fund. He pointed out it is illegal for a county to earmark funds from the current budget for a future project. Commissioner Jack Evans of New Cumberland read a letter in answer to a letter which Rodak gave the commissioner two weeks ago. Evans' letter touched off a heated argument between him and the sheriff.

IN HIS LETTER Rodak had asked for an increase in his budget allotment. He requested his deputies have $100 a month added for their overtime duties on traffic and in law enforcement; three additional deputies, and $10,000 as a salary for an accountant to be appointed chief tax deputy.

Evans said in his letter that each county in the state was contacted concerning their area, population, assessed valuation, budgets for deputies and number of deputies.

"I want to stress here again that in this survey we found Hancock County has a higher number of deputies and that

5.7 Feet Over Flood Stage

La Crosse Ready For High Water

LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP) — The flooding Mississippi River apparently has crested at 17.7 feet here but the city was prepared to continue its struggle to hold back the water which now is 5.7 feet above flood stage.

Weatherman Carl Peterson said today, "I think the river has crested at three-tenths of a foot under the mark we expected."

Peterson said that the crest of 17.7 feet was reached at 5 p.m. Tuesday and had held at that mark for 14 hours, with the reading still at 17.7 feet at 7 a.m. today.

After 48 hours of frenzied labor on the dikes, flood fighters had won a standoff. Crews were given a brief rest shortly after midnight before returning to raise and reinforces the dikes.

The river already had claimed some victories. Water ringed the city's north side and had swept over two of three runways at the municipal airport on French Island. Phone service was cut to both locations.

A guard remained posted at a 15-million-gallon gasoline tank farm where one tank, holding 107,000 gallons, was tipped at a 10-degree angle when a dike crumbled Monday. Water swirled eight feet deep around the self-sealing tanks and the potential fire danger added to the city's uneasiness.

Downstream at Clinton, Iowa, a 75-foot section of a cement retaining wall collapsed without warning Tuesday, injuring 15 young volunteer flood fighters. Eleven were released after hospital treatment. Four were held for observation.

The five-foot-high wall is part of a mile-long dike officials hope will prevent major flood damage. The wall buckled under the weight of sandbags piled on top and the pressure of sand dumped against one side.

The rising waters still were some distance from the break, and flood fighters immediately began to plug the hole.

Asserts All Of Viet Must Be Reunited

Attacks Johnson's April 17 Statement On Independence

TOKYO (AP) — Red China said today the Republic of South Viet Nam must be destroyed as a "product of U.S. imperialism" so that all Viet Nam can be reunified.

"There can be no compromise between the Vietnamese people and the U.S. aggressors on this question," said the Chinese Communist party paper, the Peking People's Daily.

Attacking President Johnson's April 17 statement that the United States insists that the independence of South Viet Nam be guaranteed, Peking said:

"The very purpose for which the South Vietnamese people are fighting at great sacrifice to themselves is to destroy completely this so-called 'independent country,' a product of U.S. imperialism, and to realize the reunification and complete liberation of their fatherland.

"So long as this so-called 'independent country' created by the U.S. exists, there can be no complete reunification nor a completely independent country for the Vietnamese people themselves. There can be no compromise between the Vietnamese people and the U.S. aggressors on this question."

The People's Daily charged that the United States "has gradually turned South Viet Nam into its colony and military base and clamped a most brutal fascist rule on the region."

Recalling the coups of recent years, it continued:

"Finding Ngo Dinh Diem not to its liking, the United States murdered him; finding Nguyen Khan not to its liking either, it removed him from office. Saigon has become the stage of a ceaseless merry-go-round, with a reshuffle every day and a coup d'etat every other day. Nobody is clear what sort of people constitute the present government of this so-called 'independent country'."

Absent At Tuesday Session

Bush Draws Council Fire At Meeting In Wellsville

Solicitor William Bush, who was absent, came under fire at a meeting of Wellsville City Council Tuesday night for allegedly failing to cooperate with Council and failing to provide advice when asked.

Councilman Paul Todd said he had requested the solicitor to be present and Council Walter Henthorne said he had written Bush a letter asking for advice on four questions.

Councilman Meryle Kenney asked what can be done relative to the Charles Amato police case, pointing out the solicitor filed for an appeal of the Common Pleas Court decision in the case though informed by Council the members did not want to pursue the suit any further.

A long discussion was held on the legal status of leasing of city land along Little Yellow Creek for a boat marina. Bush not being present, several members voiced their displeasure over the fact the issues could not be clarified last night.

Charles Eichler of Salem, who was notified he was the successful bidder for leasing the ground, met prior to the Council session with Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare.

Council met briefly with Eichler and was told that arrangements are being cleared with the Army Corps of Engineers. Jack Young, who, along with Ralph Fusco, was the other bidder for leasing the ground, asked what was being done to speed the project. He also asked if the city had been presented a check. Council members said they were told the city could not accept the money until the plans are cleared with the engineers. Young said the bid specifications did not read that way.

Henthorne said he had written a letter April 15 asking for opinions on a claim against the city, the tax status of a city building at 12th St., the boat marina and what can be done to have junk cars removed from an area of 2nd St.

Henthorne read from the city's code book stating that the solicitor must supply an answer in a reasonable length of time. Todd said this was the catch, "reasonable length of time."

Council then moved on to other business, adopting legislation authorizing the service director to advertise for bids for placing a new roof on the 12th St. building. Henthorne then raised the question of the deed to the building and it was pointed out the solicitor had been asked to run an abstract on the property.

Folowing additional discussion, Council requested Councilman Nunzio Lombardozzi, property chairman, to contact Bush to determine if the abstract was finished and, if not, to request that it be completed immediately.

Lombardozzi raised the question of the appeal filed with the 7th Appellate Court relative to the Amato case. Copies of the appeal were displayed. One section instructed the court stenographer, Mrs. Lillian Rogers, to prepare transcripts of previous hearings and copies of records, etc. Bush signed the re-

Dope Agent, Two Officers Cited In Bribe

MIAMI, Fla., (AP) — The chief federal narcotics agent in Miami and two of the city's police vice-squad officers have been charged with accepting a bribe from a dope peddler who complained he was paying $2,000 a month in protection money.

The arrests were made Tuesday by city police and a team of Federal Narcotics Bureau agents at the home of an admitted narcotics operator after the trio was said to have accepted $130 in marked money.

The three were charged with accepting a bribe, a felony under Florida law, and released on their personal bond. They are Eugene J. Marshall, 39, head of the U.S. Narcotics Bureau for southeastern Florida; police Sgt. Frank Fountain, 39, second in command of the city's vice squad; and his assistant, Roosevelt Tremble, 34, a Negro plainclothes detective.

Police Chief Walter Headley said the arrests climaxed a week of investigation. It started when the dope peddler complained to police about the protection money he said he was forced to pay.

Headley quoted the informer as saying he wanted "to quit, but they wouldn't let me."

The police chief declined to disclose the informer's name or details of the investigation, saying they would come out in court.

A source close to the investigation said the informer was a known dope peddler — doing around a $10,000-per-month business mainly in the Cuban and Negro districts of Miami — and had an extensive police record.

Union, Firms Launch Pottery Contract Talks

Management and union spokesmen in the American dinnerware industry met today at Cincinnati in the first session of a conference for reopening their current three - year agreement on wages and working conditions that will expire Dec. 1.

Joseph M. Wells Jr. and John T. Hall, co-chairmen of the labor committee, head negotiators for the U. S. Potters Association. E. L. Wheatley, president, heads conferees of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

The talks at the Netherland Hilton Hotel affect employes of seven dinnerware firms, including four in the immediate East Liverpool area. The union asked the reopening under a contract clause that allows interim negotiations by mutual consent.

Union, Two Rubber Firms Reach Accord

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The United Rubber Workers and two of the rubber industry's three major producers—Firestone and Goodrich — reached tentative agreements on new contracts early today, a few hours after old contracts expired.

The union and the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., the third of the three, also held a negotiating session that went past the midnight expiration time. The two sides were to resume talks later today.

No work stoppages were reported at the companies' plants across the country. The union's executive committee has strike vote authorization.

A union source in Dayton, Ohio, where the Goodrich talks are being held, estimated the new two-year contract would provide the company's URW workers with a 28-cent hourly wage-benefit package.

Cincinnati is the site of the Goodyear talks. Firestone negotiations are taking place in Cleveland.

Queen Pageant To Kick Off Events

Historical Activities Set For Lisbon Week In July

LISBON — After extensive planning, the Lisbon Commemorative Association announced today that it virtually has completed the program for the historical activities scheduled the week of July 17 through July 25.

Robert Kelm, association president, said the week will be kicked off July 17 with a queen pageant at the Fairgrounds in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of the railroad's coming to Lisbon.

A countywide contest will be sponsored by the Lisbon Jaycees, climaxed with the crowning of "Miss Erie - Lackawanna." The queen and her court will reign during the week's activities.

An old-fashioned costume ball, a colorful part of previous celebrations, will take place the night of the 17th in the Floral Hall at the Fairgrounds.

During the week, one day will be designated as "Morgan Day." This will mark the 50th anniversary of Morgan's Drugstore, now owned and operated by William Morgan Jr. The late William Morgan began operation of the store in 1915 at its present location.

July 22 will feature the Kiwanis Club's chicken barbecue. The club has been active in community service at the county seat since becoming affiliated with the national organization in

Fire Sweeps Trailer Home In East End

An East End trailer home was nearly destroyed by fire early today, but the owner escaped unharmed.

The blaze gutted the trailer of Donald L. Black in the Valley Trailer Court on Pennsylvania Ave., near the East End fire station.

Firemen battled the blaze for an hour after receiving the call at 4:58 a. m.

Black told firemen he went to bed about midnight and was awakened by smoke. He found a couch burning and attempted to remove it himself before calling firemen.

The blaze got out of control and quickly spread through the trailer. Firemen used three booster lines in extinguishing the blaze.

A traffic mishap involving the fire department's squad car and a fireman's private auto came as a direct aftermath of the blaze, police reported.

Fireman Donald Hancock was

Committee Ends Its Hearings On School Bus Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The House Education Committee has completed hearings on controversial school bus legislation after being told that "the church seeking its passage has assets equaling the gold reserves of France."

The Rev. Fred Klopfer, pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Columbus, was among final opposition witnesses Tuesday night before Chairman B.A. Broughton, R-Geauga, sent the legislation to a subcommittee.

Broughton indicated the committee will attempt to consolidate proposals that would require school boards to extend bus transportation to private and parochial school students, make such service permissive, or place the matter on the statewide ballot.

The Rev. Mr. Klopfer cited figures he said placed assets of the Vatican at $5.6 billion, "equal to the gold reserves of France." He noted that the Citizens for Educational Freedom, the group backing the proposals, is predominantly Roman Catholic.

Subcommittee members named by Broughton are Reps. Thomas D. Gindlesberger, R-Holmes, chairman; Robert E. Holmes, R-Franklin; John L. Beckley, R-Vinton; Wray Bevens, D-Pike; and Gerald Fuerst, D-Cuyahoga.

Use water, not milk, when making up condensed cream of tomato soup; add some cooked green noodles and cooked mixed vegetables. This makes a hearty soup for a noontime meal, but you'll probably need to serve a robust dessert.

Curbs Eased On Size Of Ohio Fishing Nets

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — The state has been legally blocked from enforcing certain restrictions on size of net openings used by Ohio commercial gill net fishermen along Lake Erie.

Lorain County Common Pleas Court Judge Leroy F. Kelly Tuesday granted a temporary injunction against the state, allowing fishermen to take smaller fish by net. This will place them in better competitive positions with Canadian fishermen and fishermen from other states where smaller net sizes are permitted.

Judge Kelly explained that a bill is pending in the Ohio Legislature to correct net size discrepancies, and that state enforcement authorities said they would not object to his order.

Sporting Goods Plant Workers Stay Off Job

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Production workers at the Wilson Sporting Goods plant here and at Ada, Ohio, stayed off the job again today in a strike over a new contract.

The workers, members of the International Chemical Workers Union, Local 461, walked off the job here Tuesday. They had been working without a contract since Jan. 26. About 200 were idled here.

Patient, Loving Uncle Sam

The most endurable thing about America in its relations with other nations is its patience.

Seldom does it reach the breaking point.

There is a virtue in this. We do not go to war impulsively. We will give assistance to those who must have it. Only when there is no other honorable way out will we resort to open conflict.

But no rebuff short of unprovoked assault by nations large or small can discourage us from continuing to force our love and our money and our manpower upon them.

We persist in our embrance even when nations which have led us to believe they love us, too, have openly demonstrated the capricious nature of their so-called devotion.

The latest example is Indonesia.

President Sukarno has insulted America so much we are almost beginning to enjoy it.

He tells us to go home with our Peace Corps, he takes over American-owned industries, he laughs out loud at our assistance in military and financial areas and he wrecks our information Service libraries.

You would think that would be enough to convince us.

But you would be wrong.

We still love Sukarno. We'll continue to extend technical assistance to Indonesia. We'll continue to talk and cajole and make believe we are somehow getting along—and all the while the Indoneisan dictator will be playing footsie with the Chinese Communists.

We are a very patient people. Or, rather, a very patient government.

Signs Needed

Through official Highway Department action — at the request of City Council — the speed limit has been reduced to 50 miles an hour on the freeway stretch inside the city limits in the California Hollow area.

The action is commendable in the interest of highway safety.

To supplement it, signs designating the speed limit within the city limits and signs designating the speed limit on the freeway outside the city limits should be posted in a hurry. With no such signs — as at present — the motorist is placed at a distinct disadvantage.

There should be no doubt as to the limit — whether it be 50 miles inside the city line or 70 outside, as the case may be.

Dog With A Bad Name

Suppose the federal government quit asking Congress for "foreign aid" and asked, instead, for a multi-billion-dollar" export assistance program."

Suppose it explained to representatives and senators and to inquiring newsmen that exports in significant volume were indispensable to a healthy domestic economy and therefore the government had to underwrite them.

Suppose it pointed out in this respect that two circumstances threatened a healthy domestic economy — the fact many U.S. concerns have built plants abroad and no longer depend on export and the fact many former U.S. customers do not have a balance of trade large enough to buy outright what the United States otherwise could sell to them.

Then suppose that to clinch the argument for subsidizing exports and making jobs that otherwise would not exist the federal government said it was using the availability of exports for political purposes, such as holding Communism at bay.

And suppose further that government then added what has become the ultimate clincher in every rationale for government policy—that it was a primary weapon in the worldwide battle to defend freedom.

Foreign aid, which is the other name for an export assistance program, has been given a bad connotation by the false assumption that the United States is giving away money.

Actually, it is spending the bulk of the money to make jobs here at home and giving away goods, instead. The current Washington rule of thumb on this matter is that 80 per cent of so-called "foreign aid" money is spent at home.

This "domestic aid" money makes jobs and profit for U.S. citizens and stockholders.

In a "foreign aid" appropriation of, say $3 billion, 80 per cent, or $2.4 billion would be spent at home. The remainder, $600 million, would be spent abroad.

In 1964, the government spent about $4.3 billion for "foreign aid," but in actual truth more than 80 per cent of the dollar spending was at home.

Going By The Clock

Thirty-one states and the District of Columbia have Daylight Saving Time, either statewide or by local option. But only 15 start and stop simultaneously.

Clocks will be put ahead in only 15 states next Sunday. The same states will set back clocks one hour on the last Sunday in October. In 16 states DST, like liquor, is a matter of local option.

The Senate Commerce Committee early last year approved a bill that would have authorized the Interstate Commerce Commission to impose uniform time standards on all federal agencies and on such interstate businesses as airlines, buses, railroads, and communications companies. The committee rejected stronger legislation to force federal time standards on all states for business and civil purposes.

The House Commerce Committee last August approved by a 9-8 vote a compromise bill that would set a uniform period for DST but would allow many exceptions. For one reason or another both measures, criticized as too permissive, failed to reach the floor.

Identical bills have been offered in both houses this year. The Senate Commerce Committee next Monday begins discussion of a bill by Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H. and Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo.

The work imposed by DST is not generally realized. Western Union, "the nation's timekeeper," once estimated that it had to adjust 40,000 clocks in tens of hundreds of cities.

Add to this hubbub the general inability to agree not only on whether to have it at all but also on when to have it, and confusion is compounded mightily.

What's New?

By Truman Twill

Having been old enough to be a grandfather for more than a few years, I report that the eventuality has come to pass and the infant and his grandpa are both doing well.

That is, both are doing well as far as anyone knows. The infant's condition is indeterminate, as is the condition of all new-born babies. The grandfather's condition is good only so far as external evidence is concerned.

Inside, the old boy has come unstuck.

It has something to do with that joke about it's not so bad being a grandpa but what hurts is having a girl friend who is a grandma.

The lady I wake up in the morning also is involved in this tribal increase. She is now in the declining generation, too.

It isn't as bad as being a great-grandmother, which this infant also can claim to have. But it's not like being a young matron, is it, grandma?

THEY SAY you get used to it—being a grandfather. I do not expect to get used to it and do not expect anyone to expect me to get used to it.

I was happy before it happened. I had not been insisting on progeny.

If there had been a choice, I would have preferred a grand-daughter.

She would have been the first of her sex in our family.

She might have looked like her grandmother. She probably would have looked like her mother. In either event, she would have been an eyeful.

It is inevitable that she would have been fussed over because of the novelty of her sex in our family.

The way it has been, because of an absence of females, boy children have grown up not knowing about the difference between men and women until they learned by accident. There has been no home training.

AS IT HAPPENS, the other grandfather of this baby sired by all-girl family—four of them. One more girl would mean nothing to him.

There would have been no interference with my personal plan to engulf, surround, monopolize and overwhelm a granddaughter. It would have worked out well for all concerned.

But. . .

It didn't work out that way. It will be just one more round of bicycles, baseball gloves, broken windows, bathlessness, experiments with chewing tobacco, lost clothing, sagging socks, uncombed hair, bad language, football, basketball and live bait.

This is old stuff in our family.

It's why gramps is unstuck over the news that his first grandchild is a boy.

It's a boy! Yeah?

So what's new?

The words of the U. S. national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," were written by Francis Scott Key in 1812. It is sung to the tune of an old song, "Anacreon In Heaven," which is generally credited to John Stafford Smith, a British composer born in 1750. This was officially made the national anthem by Congress in 1931.

The world's seas cover an estimated 139,405,000 square miles, or 70.78 per cent of the earth's total surface. The Pacific Ocean, including its adjacent seas, represents 49.75 per cent of the world's oceans.

Hawaii was discovered in 1778 by Capt. James Cook, who named it the Sandwich Islands. It was ruled by native monarchs until 1893, thereafter as a republic until 1898, when it ceded itself to the U. S. It became officially the 50th state of the U. S. on Aug. 21, 1959.

Requiem For A Labor Leader

By Victor Riesel

This is a requiem for a labor leader — once so youthfully brilliant, so laden with charm, so flashing of mind and action in the '30s that the Franklin Roosevelts said privately he was of the stuff which some day could make him the first labor president of the U.S.

Victor Riesel

The genius of yesteryear is James B. Carey, now 53 and recently unemployed. This is also the story of what happens to a jobless union chief who has been heaved out by the very same proletariat in whose name he has been searing opponents for decades. He is a man who gleefully and publicly and frequently expressed amusement over the misfortunes of those who differed with him in and out of the labor movement.

Some ex-labor leaders, such as the Teamsters' Dave Beck, retire on $1,000 a week for life and make up the difference by drawing on their private capital.

But Carey has no personal fortune. He eschewed money for power.

AND HE WAS indeed powerful. For decades — until recently — he was a White House visitor and a member of at least three influential national high command committees which administer much of the labor movement.

This, in addition to being president of the 300,000-member International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE).

He lost that power when he resigned here on April 7—after the government revealed that over 25,000 votes had been stolen from his opponent, Paul Jennings, during the original count of the November presidential mail referendum.

So Jim Carey is out, but not penniless. He is guaranteed $68,000 spread over the next 32 months.

Here's how this sum was determined: As severance pay Jim Carey is entitled to one month's pay for each year he has worked for the union, which was launched in 1949.

However, Mr. Carey told the union board that his case was different. He said he had served the labor movement since 1933. That meant one month's severance pay for 32 years. He had been earning $2,125 a month. So this is the sum he will receive each month practically to 1968.

AT THAT TIME, if Carey still is "unemployed," the IUE will begin paying him $12,500 annually as a special pension or until he finds a job. There have been suggestions in some circles that the government or the White House itself use him. These prospects are about as good as are my chances for whipping Cassius Clay.

Furthermore, at the end of two years he will be eligible for partial payment for "early retirement." Thus he will get another $4,000 annually until he's 65, when he'll receive a fuller pension.

For a man who was a tough winner, a man who drove his leading opponents out of the union in the past, a man who seldom permitted those unfortunates to forget he was the victor, he is being kindly treated indeed.

During the presidential campaign in his union last winter, he played it tough with the supporters of his opponent, Paul Jennings, who is of the new generation soon to lead all of labor.

There is the unhappy story of an IUE national field representative, Jerry Palagano—a story which proves that you should put on your boots when you get into some labor politics.

MR. PALAGANO was a staunch supporter of Mr. Jennings in the New York City area where the former had worked for years. During the height of the campaign he was told to report to Cleveland. There he was dispatched to Sandusky, O.

When he reported to the latter community he was taken by one of Mr. Carey's men to a partially finished plant. The Carey chap told Mr. Palagano that that company and its uncompleted factory had to be watched.

So Palagano had little to do. Just before the union's election day, Palagano asked permission to return home to vote. He got it.

Once home, he drove out to cast his ballot. He stopped in a garage to adjust his car and then telephoned his wife. She said Jim Carey had phoned. Palagano returned the call.

Mr. Carey, shouting, asked who gave him permission to leave his Ohio post. Palagano told him. Mr. Carey said he hadn't given permission and fired him right on the long-distance wire.

OTHER JENNINGS supporters who worked for the national union got just about as little notice. Or they were shifted from New York City to Nebraska, Utah, Arkansas, Kentucky and Virginia.

Frequently they had to leave their families behind. And just as they were settling into their new assignments, Mr. Carey shifted them again.

To top it all Mr. Carey now appears to have turned on his own men. When he resigned on April 7, he said of the crooked vote count:

"I was completely surprised by the results of the recount, which I had no reason to expect."

No reason? There were many sworn statements charging miscounts and irregularities by his own trustees.

Now they are on the spot.

The winds of spring turn cold and raw in the fall of some lives.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — At the request of owners who wanted to determine their property lines for building purposes, City Engineer George Bloomgren made surveys on Pennsylvania Ave. and Mulberry St. in East End.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Galbreath of Rogers attended the unveiling of the bronze bust of C. C. Galbreath, brother of the former, by the Columbus Archaeological and Historical Society at Ohio State University, Columbus.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A 130 - foot smokestack, costing $10,000, was put into service at the Crockery City Ice & Products Co. plant on Webber Way in an effort to cut down excessive smoke and soot in the neighborhood.

The purchase of a $450 movie projector was authorized by the McKinley Home and School Association.

TEN YEARS AGO — A 30-page report of proposed water improvements, costing $605,000, was submitted to Wellsville City Council and referred to the water and finance committees.

Danger Of Pacifism

By David Lawrence

Attitude Encourages Risk Of Drastic Actions

With the best intentions in the world, pacifists sometimes bring on the very war to which they proclaim their opposition. Unwittingly they give aid and comfort to an enemy country and serve to increase the possibility that American policy will be misconstrued abroad as being unsupported by public opinion. Then chances will be taken by an adversary which could lead to war.

David Lawrence

An example of the consequences of this misguided attitude on the part of Americans is furnished in the following UPI dispatch from the Far East a few days ago:

"American protests and demonstrations against U.S. policy in Viet Nam have gotten a warm reception in Communist North Viet Nam and Communist China.

"Hanoi's official newspaper, Nhan Dan, and China's New China News Agency devote almost daily space to the petitions, advertisements, picketing and demonstrations of Americans against U.S. policy.

"Nhan Dan, in a commentary today, said, 'the thousands-strong parade of American people held in New York on April 10 strikes a new note to the American people's determination to check the U.S. imperialists dirty war against Viet Nam.'"

THE DANGER at the moment is that the Red Chinese as well as the Soviets will get the impression that the American people are divided and that the pacifistic urge is dominant to such an extent that all the strong words of President Johnson can be regarded abroad as not reflecting the true American sentiment if a showdown comes.

Twice in the last half-century well-meaning senators have unwittingly helped to weaken the American position. On both occasions the German governments in power were led to believe that the United States would not become involved in the conflict. Two world wars ensued, and the United States was obliged to enter both in self-defense.

Although President Wilson had severed diplomatic relations with the Kaiser's government in Germany on Feb. 3, 1917, and had protested the sinking of unarmed passenger vessles with the loss of many American lives, "a little group of willful men" in the United States Senate —as Mr. Wilson characterized them —filibustered to death a proposal that the United States arm its vessels in protection against German submarines.

MANY HISTORIANS believe that this particular debacle —on March 4, 1917 — strengthened the determination of the Berlin regime to wage unrestricted submarine warfare against American pssenger ships on the theory that the United States was divided and would not enter the war.

"A few weeks later — on April 2, 1917 — the President of the United States found it necessary to appear before a special session of Congress to initiate American entry into World War 1.

Somewhat the same circumstances occurred when President Franklin D. Roosevelt asked Congress to give him authority to sell arms to Western Europe. He was refused permission by the United States Senate, as Congress adjourned on Aug. 5, 1939, without even acting on his request.

This led to the belief in Berlin that the United States would not enter the conflict, and World War II came less than a month later.

History proves again and again that American presidents have been forced subsequently into awkward positions because of pacifist manifestations, often supported by senators and representatives who sincerely believe they are following popular sentiment.

THE SITUATION in the world today is a dangerous one. The United States is doing its utmost to help the government of South Viet Nam to retain its independence. Not only is America pledged by the Southeast Asia Treaty to this principle, but the Congress of the United States by a resolution only last year expressed itself in unequivocal terms about the intention of this country to defend the smaller nations of Southeast Asia.

The resolution says in part:

"Consonant with the Constitution of the United States and the Charter of the United Nations and in accordance with its obligations under the Southeast Asia collective defense treaty, the United States is, therefore, prepared, as the President determines, to take all necessary steps, including the use of armed force, to assist any member or protocol state of the Southeast Asia collective defense treaty requesting assistance in defense of its freedom."

THIS IS, therefore, American foreign policy, not only made by the executive branch of the government but supported by the overwhelming vote of both houses of Congress.

Individual senators and representatives have every right to express themselves on any subject, but the net effect of the stand being taken today by some of them against American policy in Viet Nam could be disastrous.

This attitude could mislead the enemy into a belief that drastic steps can be risked by its forces on the theory that American opinion would not sustain a decisive response. Instead of preventing a war, this could bring on a major conflict.

Not A Clear Picture

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Lyndon B. Johnson has now served the first three months of his full presidential term and it hasn't been long enough to get a rounded picture of him.

Only part of him, like an iceberg, has been visible so far. His policies and tactics at home are clear enough. His foreign policy isn't.

His success at home, at least with Congress, has been astonishing. The same can't be said of his dealings abroad, if only because there hasn't been enough of them, although they could turn out that way.

In foreign policy he could wind up being the toughest president in years.

What he did in foreign affairs between the time he succeeded President John F. Kennedy on Nov. 22, 1963, and when he was sworn in on his own last Jan. 20 can't be taken as a yardstick.

In that period he played it cool, quiet and cautious. He had no real crisis, there was an election coming, and he wasn't about to supply the opposition with ammunition.

Then, within a month after beginning his own four-year term, he made a very tough decision.

This was his order last Feb. 7 to bomb Communist North Viet Nam. And, refusing to yield to criticism, he has kept the bombing going ever since, even though it could lead to conflict with the Soviet Union and Red China.

Since no other problem in the past three months has required such drastic action, this one example is not enough evidence on which to build a case for a hard-nosed man in the White House.

It's hard to say whether he was being tough or just rough in the way he recently handled the prime minister of India and the president of Pakistan, both of whom were to visit here soon.

He canceled their visits so abruptly that The Associated Press reported from India that the prime minister was deemed publicly disgraced. The reason?

The White House said Johnson was going to be too busy with Viet Nam and Congress to receive the two visitors who are next-door neighbors in Asia, but not friendly ones.

But The AP reported from India it is generally believed there that Johnson did what he did to show his displeasure with India and Pakistan, both of whom have received U.S. aid, for their criticism of this country.

Johnson's action undoubtedly reflects the feelings of many Americans who are getting fed up seeing the United States lambasted by countries which have had their hands out for U.S. help.

History may decide that the United States, in playing meek nursemaid to countries it hoped to keep away from communism with American aid, pursued far too long a policy far too soft and injurious to itself.

they are higher paid than any other deputies in the state," Evans wrote.

"Upon further investigation, we find your deputies receive a higher base pay than the city of Weirton police, West Virginia state police, and Jefferson County, Ohio, deputies.

"Now, with these facts in mind, I think we have been more than reasonable with your budget and I also feel you are being inconsiderate in pursuing the matter further."

Referring to a juvenile problem that had been referred to by Rodak in his letter, Evans said he has checked many tavern owners who say they haven't in the past and don't expect to serve juveniles because "they are a source of trouble."

—:—

EVANS SAID also he questioned many law enforcement officers in the county and was advised there is no juvenile drinking problem, and "there has been none."

"Then the Hancock County juvenile officer advised me that of the many, many cases he has had with juveniles violating one law or another, never have any of these troubles stemmed from the juveniles drinking intoxicants."

Evans said this problem doesn't seem to be alarming and that "if it were I would be the first to insist something be done about it."

He stated further in his letter: "Although you advertised your clampdown far and wide, citizens tell me there has never been a day during this period that a number, a sports parlay, or a horse could not be bet with a bookie in Hancock County. This is not a very effective clampdown."

He referred to a letter signed by "a Weirton resident" which described a raid on the J & L Club on State Rt. 2 on April 3.

—:—

EVANS LETTER continued: "This is really law enforcement when you realize at the same time of this raid the gala opening of the casinos of the Strip were announced in the newspapers. Everyone in Hancock County, as well as people many miles distant, are aware of the Route 30 clubs described as second to none in Vegas, and million dollar gaming operations, and you talk about a juvenile problem. When have you or your deputies raided the Paddock Club on Route 30?

"If the past three months is an example of your type of law enforcement, 50 additional deputies would not correct the situation, but would only be a waste of taxpayers' money."

Commissioner William Graham of Chester said he was not in favor of giving the deputies a $100 - a- month increase in their $520-a-month salary. He made a motion, however, that the salaries be increased by $55 a month. The motion died for a lack of a second.

Commissioner James Finley of Weirton asked the sheriff why he needed three more men and an increase in their salaries. He cited the survey of other counties in the state with similar population and budgets that have less deputies than Hancock and also said he could get many men to serve as deputies under the same conditions that now exist.

The sheriff said that he wanted a pay boost to get and keep good men. He cited salaries in the steel industry are higher and more appealing to the men.

Relative to the survey comparing other counties with Hancock, the sheriff said that other counties of the state also have more state police and other law enforcement officers to assist the county force.

Rodak said his men have been working 12 to 16 hours a day on traffic and unsolved criminal cases.

The sheriff said he was not showing any discrimination in his raids. He pointed out that a large percentage of the tavern owners arrested were people who supported him in his election campaign.

—:—

"WHY HAVEN'T you raided the Paddock Club?" Mr. Evans asked.

"We have visited it," the sheriff replied. "What have the other police in the county done to help"?

Evans questioned whether the sheriff requested other police help. Rodak said he didn't have to ask. He said they shouldn't have to be asked, but should volunteer.

"I don't tell you how to be commissioners," Rodak continued. "I don't like the instructions you have been giving me since I took office. I'll run my office; you run yours".

Evans told the sheriff that "if law enforcement in the county doesn't get better, he would be in favor next year of giving the sheriff's department a budget which would include "a jailer, and a bicycle to ride on," and cut the budget as far as possible.

"And you will be responsible," the sheriff remarked.

The sheriff said the reason he discontinued his clampdown in March was to see what the county constables and other law enforcement officers would do. He said he also needed to give his deputies some time off because of the large amount of overtime work they have been doing.

backing the squad car off a used car lot near the scene when it bumped a parked 1956 model station wagon owned by Fireman John W. Taylor, police said. Taylor, who was off duty, had gone to assist at the blaze, officers said.

There was no damage to the fire department vehicle, a 1948 model truck with a utility body, officers reported. The mishap damaged the left front fender and hubcap of Taylor's auto, officers said.

Hancock reported he was backing off the used car lot of Mackall Motors on Pennsylvania Ave. and did not see the parked station wagon.

Firemen also answered two minor calls Tuesday. A brush fire on W. 3rd St. was extinguished at 1:17 p. m. and gasoline leaking from a parked car was flushed from W. 5th St. at 11:15 a. m.

Chester Driver Cited After 2-Auto Mishap

A hearing is slated tonight in Chester for James R. Glover of 104 Church St., cited Tuesday after a collision of his car and a station wagon on 1st St. near Virginia Ave.

Police said Glover's 1964 sedan crossed over the centerline and hit a 1961 station wagon operated by Archie Beaumont of Chester R. D. 1. Damage totaled $250, officers said. The crash occurred at 9:10 p. m.

The hearing is slated before Mayor Harry Abrams.

Hancock Jury To Get $9,500 Action Today

Testimony was concluded today in Hancock County Circuit Court in the trial in which Harry Sommerville is suing the Pennsylvania Railroad for $9,500, in connection with injuries received in an accident at the Weirton Steel Co.

The jury reconvened today to hear closing arguments and begin its deliberations.

Scranton Urges Broad Program For Urban Help

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Gov. William W. Scranton has called upon the Pennsylvania General Assembly to enact a far-reaching program of urban aid and to create a new department of community affairs to administer it.

The governor, in an appearance Tuesday afternoon before a joint session of the legislature, gave the broad outlines of a program in which $100,000,000 could merely be the start of financing.

—:—

THE DETAILS will be made known in legislation to be introduced in the next several weeks.

In essence, the governor would have the General Assembly attack five major urban problems in this fashion:

Provide more state aid for city schools on a schedule which would provide Pittsburgh with benefits principally through school construction and renovation and special aid for "impacted" pupil areas.

Create state financing of home ownership for middle - income families, specially those earning $3,600 to $8,000 a year.

Provide state aid, both financial and planning, for mass transportation facilities with emphasis on the purchase of needed equipment by the Allegheny County Port Authority.

Double the state's contribution to juvenile court and probation services and local juvenile police units, and provide a training center for persons who work in juvenile delinquency control.

Put up $2,000,000 in state money, to be matched by local money, so that local communities can take advantage of available federal funds to establish community centers for the mentally ill and retarded. This also envisions legislation which will permit local communities to join in the establishment of district health officers.

THE SCRANTON message hardly had been completed before Philadelphia Democrats, seeking a slice of transportation appropriate $10,000,000 in state money to subsidize operating costs as well as acquire capital equipment.

The money part of the governor's transportation program already has been introduced and cleared the Senate in the Fleming bill which appropriates $4,350,000, mostly for capital expenditures, so that the Allegheny County Port Authority may latch on to as much as $9,000,000 in federal funds.

Chester Sets Cleanup Days

Chester's annual "Citywide Cleanup Week" will get under way May 10, with arrangements being completed at Tuesday night's meeting of Council at the chambers in City Hall.

Residents may call City Hall for trash pickup during the week. Refuse must be placed in containers and must not contain garbage or furniture, officials emphasized.

Three residents of the Fairview Rd. complained of coal trucks running up over curbs and damaging property. The councilmen agreed to notify the coal company of the complaint by letter.

Council also approved the acquisition of six stop signs and stands.

A special session relative to the 1965-66 budget was held following the regular meeting.

It was announced that the levy estimate has been approved by the West Virginia Tax Commission as drawn up and that no changes were necessary. Copies were ordered sent to the state auditor, tax commissioner and county tax assessor.

Group Proposes Return Of Merchants' Officers

A nominating committee proposed Tuesday that all officers of the East Liverpool Merchants Association be retained for one-year terms.

Reporting at the ELMA's monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office, the committee proposed the re-election of: Dayton Allen, chairman; Jack Steinberg, vice chairman, and James Locke, treasurer.

E. R. Chandler is executive secretary of the group because of his post as executive manager of the Chamber.

Because of the organization's by-laws require a vote on officers, ballots will be mailed to all members to permit them to propose other names if they wish. The ballots will be returned prior to the next meeting May 18. The officers will begin new terms at the following session on June 15.

The nominating committee was comprised of Tom Phillips, William Kozel and Edwin Maloney. It was appointed at the March meeting.

There was a general discussion on store hours, particularly closing times, but no decision was reached.

Harold Allison and Leslie Blumentahl, co-chairmen, reported on arrangements for the group's annual spring outing, scheduled June 2.

Members will travel to Pittsburgh by chartered bus to have dinner, attend a Pirate baseball game and visit the Nationality Rooms at the University of Pittsburgh.

A report also was presented on a spring promotion that will be held in May, titled "Bermuda Play - Time Vacation." The data was reported by Max Shoff and Charles Averell, co-chairmen of the promotion committee.

The next meeting will be May 18.

New Trial Is Sought For Convicted Killer

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP) — An appeal for a new trial has been filed for Robert L. Pruett, convicted of first-degree murder and sentenced to death.

The appeal was filed Tuesday in Ashtabula County Common Pleas Court to the 7th District Court of Appeals in Akron. Defense attorneys Howard and Gordon Nazor said they would stress five of the 19 points on which Tye based the appeal.

Pruett, 26, of Ashtabula, was sentenced March 27 to die in the electric chair Aug. 18 for the slaying of Susan Osborne, 17, of Conneaut.

Precinct Boards Set For Primary

Only six-member precinct boards will be used in two cities and two villages where both Republicans and Democrats will have primaries on May 4, with the staffs in all other precincts reduced to four, the County Election Board said today.

Presiding judges and clerks who will be employed on May 4 already have been notified, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, reported.

The six-member boards will be used in precincts in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Lisbon and Columbiana.

Only four - member precinct staffs will be used in Salem, where only a Democratic primary is scheduled; East Palestine, where only Republicans have contests, and in all other precincts in the county where voters will cast ballots on four state amendments, two county-wide tax levies and any local questions and issues, O'Hanlon explained.

California grew most in population during the 10 years between 1950 and 1960, according to the census. Following in order were Florida, New York, Texas, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, and New Jersey.

Spahn Stops Dodgers; Bucs Whip Giants

-National-

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Warren Spahn gave every indication in 1964 that he was getting too old to remain a big winner in the majors. Apparently he stopped off somewhere between seasons for a vitamin pick-me-up that has taken a couple of years off his 43-year-old left arm.

Making his second start Tuesday night, the winningest southpaw in major league history came through with another strong performance, allowing only one earned run in a 3-2 victory over Los Angeles that brought him his first triumph as a New York Met and the 357th of his career.

That left Spahn with a sparkling 2.12 earned-run average and two steps closer toward his prime 1965 goal—"erasing the memory of last year when everything went bad for me."

Spahn won 23 games for Milwaukee in 1963, then fell to a 6-13 mark last season with a 5.28 ERA. But he never once assumed he was over the hill.

"I am sound physically," he pointed out during spring training. "I just wasn't pitching enough last year. I have to work regularly to be effective.

"You can't convince me you go from middle age to old age in one year."

He proved his point against the Dodgers, working into the ninth with a four-hit shutout.

Then a single by Wes Parker and an error by Ed Kranepool opened the door and the Dodgers stuck their foot in it with run-producing singles by Tommy Davis and John Roseboro.

But with the tying and winning runs on first and third, Spahn reared back into his high kick and pitched out of the jam. He struck out Jim Lefebvre for strikeout No. 2,500 of his career, got Ron Fairly on a grounder and finished with a flourish by striking out John Kennedy.

Elsewhere, Roberto Clemente, still underweight from a battle with malaria this spring, drove in two runs with a pair of singles in Pittsburgh's 3-1 victory over San Francisco and Philadelphia edged Houston 2-1 in 13 innings on Ruben Amaro's key single. The other clubs were not scheduled.

Spahn was locked in a scoreless duel with Dodger starter Claude Osteen, who had allowed only three hits, until the eighth when Roy McMillan's squeeze bunt brought in Johnny Lewis.

Lewis produced the other New York runs with a two-run single in the ninth inning.

Clemente, who has six hits in his last 12 at-bats, singles following Bill Virdon's double in the first inning and drove in another Pirate run in the fifth after Dick Schofield singled and moved to second on a grounder.

Willie Mays provided the only San Francisco run with his third homer of the season. Mays' 420-foot belt came off Bob Friend, who needed Al McBean's relief help over the final 2 2-3 innings to get his second victory without a loss.

The Phillies edged the Astros in the 13th when reliever Hal Woodeshick issued two-out walks to Cookie Rojas and Frank Thomas before Amaro followed with his game-winning hit off Claude Raymond.

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Felix Mantilla, who made more moves than a belly dancer last year, has reduced his act.

Instead of belting the ball between fielders and over fences while moving from one of six positions to another, he's just rapping the ball between fielders and over fences.

Mantilla, maintaining the power he discovered in 1964, drove in all of Boston's runs Tuesday in the Red Sox' 5-2 triumph over Washington. It was the only American League game scheduled.

The 30-year-old Puerto Rican got the Red Sox off to a fast start with a first-inning grand-slam home run — the first of his career and the first in the league this season. Two innings later, he singled across Boston's final run.

The performance increased Mantilla's 1965 output to a .368 batting average, two homers and 10 runs batted in. No one else in the AL has more than seven RBI while only Tony Conigliaro, hitting .556, has a better average with Boston.

Mantilla's slugging has helped the Red Sox to four victories in their first five games and the AL lead.

Acquired from the New York Mets for the 1963 season, Mantilla burst forth last year as a power hitter, reaching career highs of 30 home runs and 64 runs batted in. His .289 average was second best in hs niine-year career.

While he was compiling his lustrous record, Mantilla was moving all over the Boston defense. He played at six different spots — all three outfield posts, second base, shortstop and third base.

For this year, however, Manager Billy Herman decided Mantilla would remain at only one position — second base.

In other International League action, Jacksonville whipped winless Rochester 6 - 3, Toledo shut out Buffalo 5-0 and Columbus nipped Toronto 8-7.

Toledo broke out of a three-game losing streak on the strength of a five-hit shutout by 22-year-old Tom Dukes. The Mud Hens scored all five of their runs in the fifth inning, four unearned.

The runs scored on a combination of three hits, an error, two walks and a wild pitch. Jake Gibbs was Toledo's leading hitter with a double and a single.

Toronto overcame a 7-0 Columbus lead in the last three innings, only to lose in the last of the ninth on Pancho Herrera's run-scoring double.

The Leafs were held to one hit over the first six innings by Dave Roberts but used two-run homers by Tony Horton in the seventh and Bill Milinis in the eighth to break the spell.

Lady Boosters Realize $360 At Concession Stand

A total of $360.25 was realized from the concession stand sponsored during the recent Nonpareil Club junior basketball tournament, it was reported Monday night at the meeting of the Lady Potter Boosters in the YMCA.

Mrs. Juanita Clendenning, president, said the money will be used to help defray the cost of the washer-drier which the Boosters recently purchased for the use of the football squad at Patterson Field.

Mrs. Marge Manley, chairman, named committees to assist in the bake and lunch sale which the group will sponsor Saturday at Crook's.

The Boosters will serve the dinner May 8 during the Oak Glen senior banquet at the high school near Pughtown.

A resolution was passed at last night's business meeting in memory of Mrs. June Twyford, a past president, who died last week.

The next regular meeting will be May 3 at the YMCA.

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Felix Mantilla, Red Sox, drove in all five Boston runs with a grand-slam homer and a single in Red Sox' 5-2 victory over Washington.

PITCHING — Warren Spahn, Mets, won his first game for New York, beating the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-2 for his 357th career victory.

Celtics Shoot For Third Straight Against Lakers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Coach Red Auerbach, the colorful coach of the Boston Celtics, isn't ready to predict when he'll light his well-known victory cigar for the final time of the long National Basketball Association season.

But Auerbach indicated he'd just as soon make it three straight over the Los Angeles Lakers tonight and wrap up the championship in the fourth struggle Friday night, again here.

"We came to play. I hope we win one game, two games in Los Angeles. That's about all I can say," said Auerbach, who has a custom of lighting a cigar toward the end of a game when victory seems assured.

The Celtics swept both of the two-game opening series in Boston in the best-of-7 series.

A capacity crowd of more than 14,000 is expected for the tipoff in the Sports Arena.

Boston swamped the Lakers in the first game 142-110, but Los Angeles made it closer in the second, 129-123.

"We're going to get closer this time," said Laker Coach Fred Schaus.

Schaus said he has an excellent team, even without injured Elgin Baylor.

"But this Boston team is the best ever assembled," Schaus added.

The Lakers were heartened by the stepped-up scoring by their top star, Jerry West, who had 45 points after being held to 26 in the opening game.

"If West can get around 49 in both games we can win them here. If he gets 30 or 35 in each game, we're still in good shape," Schaus observed.

Auto Supply To Seek 3rd Cage Crown

Auto Body Supply of East Liverpool, winner of the Wellsville Jaycee and the local Tri-State tournament, will be shooting for a third straight championship when play gets under way Thursday night in the United Boosters classic at Hanoverton.

The local entry, one of 24 squads in the Hanoverton tourney, will make its bow tomorrow night at 8:30, and if victorious will return to action Friday night at 10.

Featuring the Auto Body Supply entry will be Willie Somerset, Duquesne University's all-time leading scorer; Red Jones of Youngstown U., a Little All-America sensation, and Frank Granat, the 7-foot, 1-inch star of Alliance College.

Penn State's basketball team won 20 and lost 4 games last season. Princeton beat the Nittany Lions, 60-58, early in the NCAA playoffs.

Oak Glen's Golfers Win

Oak Glen's golf team defeated Follansbee High, 8-7, in a match Tuesday afternoon at the Woodview course, near New Cumberland.

Rick Hindes shot a 42 over the nine holes, followed by Bob Finley 45, Bill Ferguson and John Finley 48s and Bob Graham 54.

Low for Follansbee was Bob Hillis with a 41. Other scores for the losers were Jim Biard with a 47, Riley Vucelik and Mark Nixon with 48s and Wayne Kraina 50.

Oak Glen will play Wellsburg next Wednesday at the Highland Springs course at Wellsburg.

Hartack Eyes 5th Victory On Bold Lad

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Hartack will shoot for a record-tying fifth Kentucky Derby victory aboard highly regarded Bold Lad, thanks to the latest in a series of musical chairs maneuvers of riding assignments for the May 1 racing classic.

Hartack, who has won four of six Derby starts, was named Tuesday to ride Bold Lad, a top-heavy favorite until last Saturday's third-place finish in the Wood Memorial at Aqueduct.

The controversial veteran replaces Manuel Ycaza, who was aboard Bold Lad in the Wood as a substiutte for the suspended Braulio Baeza. Hartack also will be up when Bold Lad goes in the Derby Trial next Tuesday.

Baeza is under contract to Darby Dan Farm and is expected to ride either Bugler or Country Friend in the Triple Crown opener at Churchill Downs. Ycaza agreed Monday to ride Flag Raiser in the Derby, replacing Johnny Sellers.

Hartack won last year's Derby aboard Northern Dancer after Willie Shoemaker switched from the Canadian-bred colt to favored Hill Rise. Hartack also won with Iron Liege in 1957, Venetian Way in 1960 and Decidedly in 1962. Only Eddie Arcaro, now retired, has won five Derbies and he started in the classic 21 times.

Lucky Debonair May Hold Key To Derby Field's Size

By BOB COOPER

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Lucky Debonair may hold a key to the size of this year's Kentucky Derby field when he meets four or five other 3-year-olds in the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes Thursday.

The list of Derby possibles, jumped to 18 horses after Darby Dan Farm's Bugler nipped Lucky Debonair by a neck and Wheatley Stable's Bold Lad was beaten by two horses in the Wood Memorial.

They are favorites in the Derby future book.

But Mrs. Ada L. Rice's bay colt can rattle the Derby thoughts out of a lot of heads in the Blue Grass' 1⅛-mile course, an eighth shorter than the Derby.

Likely to oppose Lucky Debonair are Earl Allen's Arkansas Derby winner, Swift Ruler; Mrs. Moody Jolley's Adsum; Mrs. Mary Keim's Mr. Pak; Darby Dan's Country Friend and J. W. Burton's Famous Lover.

Darby Dan trainer Jim Conway will send Bugler in the Derby trial next Tuesday at Churchill Downs, then decide if either, both or neither of his colts will go in the May 1 derby.

"We're just playing it by ear," Conway said. But Olin Gentry, Darby Dan's farm boss, said folks at the farm aren't "getting our hopes up this year."

Lucky Debonair's loss to Bugler came in the mud and the Derby co-favorite had traffic troubles at the start of the seven-furlong race and at the top of the stretch.

Cage Star Gets Big Welcome On Campus

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Schoolboy basketball sensation Lew Alcindor visited the campus of Holy Cross Tuesday and was given a red carpet treatment.

Alcindor, the 7-foot-1 star of New York's Power Memorial High School, was accompanied by his high school coach, Jack Donohue, who also is the new Crusader basketball coach.

A college spokesman admitted the school was very interested in Alcindor but said "we don't have much optimism about our chances of getting him." He also denied published reports Alcindor already has applied for admission to the college.

Koufax To Take His Regular Mound Turn

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dodger Manager Walt Alston has announced that left-hander Sandy Koufax will take his place in rotation and pitch against the New York Mets Thursday.

Alston had said earlier that he would give Koufax some extra rest after his five-hit 6-2 victory over Philadelphia last Sunday. He changed his mind Tuesday because of favorable reports on Koufax' arm.

The Dodger ace has been bothered with an arthritic elbow ailment this spring, but apparently felt no after effects of his nine-inning Sunday performance.

Montreal Tops Chicago, 2-0, To Lead 2-0 In Cup Finals

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — "If they can keep those two big guys quiet, we'll have won half the battle," says Montreal goalie Gump Worsley.

Montreal had kept the two big guys quiet and has already won half the battle in the Stanley Cup National Hockey League championship.

The Canadiens scored a 2-0 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks Tuesday night and have won the first two games of the best-of-7 series in Montreal.

For the second successive game, Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, Chicago's one-two scoring punch, failed to produce. Hull is Montreal's No. 1 target. So far Claude Provost has done a brilliant job of guarding the Golden Jet.

Hull was held to only two shots on goal in the second game, in which Jean Beliveau and Dick Duff scored power play goals in the second and third periods, respectively, to give Montreal its commanding edge.

Not only have Hull and Mikita been stopped, but the Hawks desperately miss Pierre Pilote and Kenny Wharram, a couple of injured stars.

Pilote, the All-Star defenseman, captain and playmaker, is out with an injured left shoulder. Wharram is suffering from bruised knees. Whether they will be able to play when the series resumes in Chicago Thursday night is questionable.

The Hawks are hoping for a change in their fortunes on their home ice. In the semifinals they lost the first two games in Detroit only to roar back and take the series in seven games.

Hull remarked after Tuesday's game, "We didn't look any better when we lost the first two in Detroit. We'll bounce back."

In three years under Gene Mauch the Philadelphia National League baseball team went from 47 victories in one season to 92 last year.

Weirton Man's Named Hancock CD Director

NEW CUMBERLAND — Andrew J. Kondik of 2118 Weir Ave., Weirton, an employe of the Weirton Steel Co. and a Weirton fireman for 30 years, was appointed Tuesday by the Hancock County Court of Commissioners as Civil Defense director of Hancock County.

He succeeds Norman Ferrari of Weirton, who held the position 18 years. It pays $175 a month, plus travel allowance.

Kondik was born March 25, 1915, in McDonaldton, Pa., but has resided in Weirton since 1923. He attended schools in Weirton and started to work for the Weirton Steel Co. in 1931. He has been foreman in the 54-inch Annealing Department the last 15 years.

He joined Co. 1, Weirton Volunteer Fire Department, in 1935 and has held every office in the department. He has been an instructor in West Virginia University extension fire schools the last four years and has been active in civil defense work in the area.

In 1961 he was one of a party of five Weirton residents who made a survival test for two weeks in the hills of Preston County, W. Va. Kondik lost 24 pounds in that period. The party subsisted on vegetation, fish and game.

Kondik has been an assistant to Ferrari in civil defense work since 1961 and has conducted classes in medical self - help, shelter survival and radiological monitoring.

In World War II, Kondik served three years with the 84th Infantry Division, two years being in the European Theater. He was a battalion operations sergeant with the 334th Infantry Regiment and held the rank of staff sergeant.

He is married to the former Marcella Slowikowski of Weirton. They have three children: Mrs. James McAbee; Andrew Jr., now at Fort Knox, Ky., and Marcelene, a student at Madonna High School.

quest as solicitor for the city and the Civil Service Commission.

Amato won a declaratory judgment against the city and had himself declared a regular patrolman on the police force. His suit named Mayor William Daugherty, Baldasare and the Civil Service Commission as defendants.

After the court ruling in favor of Amato was issued, Council adlpted a resolution stating it did not want to pursue the matter further. The Civil Service Commission later issued a statement asking to be withdrawn from the action.

The appeal also is signed by Atty. James Allison as counsel for Daugherty and Atty. Lawrence Smith for Baldasare.

Council agreed to have a letter sent to the court stenographer informing her that Council does not want to incur any costs in the case. Council also voted to have a copy of its resolution sent to the Appellate Court.

At this point, Kenney pointed out Council had adopted the resolution, the commission wants out and asked, "What can be done?"

Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president, suggested that some other legal counsel be obtained.

It was brought out that Council had ordered legislation a month ago to appoint Atty. Thomas Coe as special assistant solicitor, but Bush had not presented the ordinance.

Henthorne asked, "Can we hire an assistant solicitor to draw up legislation to name an assistant solicitor?"

Mayor Daugherty and Baldasare also were absent at last night's meeting.

Scotland Sets Fish Farming Experiment

GLASGOW, Scotland — Fish farming, aimed at producing fish of uniform size for the packaging industry, is to be tried this summer at Ardnamurchan, Argyllshire.

Five acres of sea will be enclosed, it was announced here by a team from Strathclyde University, which has been making a series of studies and surveys of the west coast of Scotland. The government's White Fish Authority has made a grant of $96,600 for the research work.

The team, headed by Prof. William Frazer, forecast that sea fish farming on a commercial scale might take place in Britain in five to 10 years. Potential sites extending to about 2,000 acres and capable of enclosing 30 million fish have already been surveyed.

In his first year as Army's tennis coach last season, Bill Cullen guided the West Pointers to a 13-2 season. He was graduated from Wake Forest in 1960.

300 Attend Safety Dinner

LISBON — More than 300 attended the 15th annual Columbiana County Industrial Safety Committee banquet Tuesday night at Columbiana for which Dr. Tennyson Guyer of Findlay was speaker.

His theme was, "Man Alive! Stay That Way."

Ernest Lowe of East Liverpool was master of ceremonies and the Rev. George Sweeney of Columbiana gave the invocation.

Michael Schuller, chairman of the county committee introduced guests, and W. L. Christensen, supervisor in the Ohio Division of Safety & Hygiene, announced the winners of the safety awards.

Among triple winners for the lowest accident frequency, no lost time accidents and an improvement of 10 per cent over 1964 were the East Liverpool Review and Fitzpatrick Industries of East Palestine.

Double winners included the Woodbine Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co. of East Liverpool, the Albco Foundry of Lisbon and the Sterling China Co. of Wellsville.

The Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. of East Liverpool received a special award for outstanding safety.

Several other district firms were cited for operating a year without a lost time accident or for improvement over the previous year.

ment officials to budge the talks off dead center and avoid the possibility of a miscalculation that could lead to a strike.

Industry negotiators, who previously said they would not go beyond a 2 per cent increase, are now considering a reported union offer of a 3.2 per cent hike in exchange for a strike date postponement.

The 3.2 per cent figure, which would amount to about 14 cents an hour plus a 3-cent cost-of-living increase, is based on recommendations of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

The council has suggested limiting wage gains to the estimated 3.2 per cent annual increase in man-hour productivity in U.S. industry.

Steelworkers now average $4.40 per hour in wages and fringe benefits.

Johnson and his economic advisers are gravely concerned that a settlement much beyond the 3.2 per cent guideline could start an inflationary spiral spreading throughout the economy and boost prices generally.

Even more worrisome to the administration is the possibility of a strike that would cause shortages in steel-using industries and slow the present favorable rate of growth in the economy.

Bold Ruler, sire of Bold Lad, was fourth in the 1957 Kentucky Derby, won the Preakness and ran third in the Belmont.

Southerners Commended By Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has commended Southerners striving for better race relations and said:

"Neither a voting rights act nor any other civil rights act will solve the civil rights problems of the nation or insure equal justice and equal opportunity for all our Negro citizens.

"These goals can be achieved only as the result of individual understanding, or community responsibility and of national good faith."

The President specifically commended the 22 Alabama business groups that advertised their commitment toward better racial communication and the leaders of Selma for deciding to endorse the advertisements.

"Assuredly," Johnson said, "racial problems will persist, not only in Alabama, and not only in the South. But for this to happen in a city where group feelings have been inflamed suggests, I think, that men of reason and good will can prevail in all parts of our country. There could be no more encouraging fact."

The President's statement, issued Tuesday by the White House, was made at a Cabinet meeting.

In it, he noted Congress is returning after an Easter recess and said he hopes it "will now continue its excellent display of deliberation with speed and enact the voting rights bill without delay."

Senate debate on the bill was to have started today, but the death of Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., has caused a cancellation of all proceedings.

Three members of the Judiciary Committee, Sens. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., the chairman, and John L. McClellan, D-Ark., and Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., submitted a statement saying they consider the bill unconstitutional.

Coach John Balquist's Columbia University baseball teams have had winning seasons the last six years. Since 1952 his Lion teams have won 111 games, lost 98 and tied 8.

Sadair, easy winner of last November's rich Garden State Stakes, is at Plum Lane Farm, Lexington, Ky., after fracturing a coffin bone in January. He has been retired from racing.

Grass Fire Quelled

LISBON — Firemen extinguished a grass fire Tuesday at 12:45 p. m. on the Joseph Kenney farm on the Elkton - West Point Rd. about one mile south of Elkton. The fire burned over one acre and came within ten feet of storage shed owned by Kenney before it was quelled.

Lisbon

1921. The Rev. Peter Macauley, uncle of Alice Jean McGrew of W. Lincoln Way, was the first president of the Lisbon club, now headed by Atty. Don Lewis.

On July 23, reactivated Civil War units from many states are scheduled to gather at the Fairgrounds for the start of three-day exercises, including a parade the evening of July 24 and a battle re-enactment at the Fairgrounds on July 25.

Kelm said it also is hoped that dedication ceremonies can be held for the new post office some time during the week. Letters already have been sent to various government officials asking their participation.

Under the direction of the Lisbon Civic Improvement Association, the community will be gaily decorated in a historical theme. Various store windows will feature antique and historical items, as during the Morgan Raid centennial.

It is planned to have such items left on display for at least a month.

The Midwest Railway Historical Foundation will bring a trainload of members to Lisbon on July 25 to join the commemorative activities.

The association will offer "Certificates" featuring the railroad centennial as a means of financing the summer program, Kelm said. The drawing for the certificate is being prepared by Mrs. Norrine Cameron, a noted designer.

William Jones and Blair Lewis will head the old - fashioned law enforcement department, complete with stockade and "kangaroo court." Such court proceedings in the past have been handled by Squire Felix Butch, who will be on "duty" again. As in the past, beards and bonnets will be featured, with those who do not participate subject to prosecution at evening "court" proceedings. Official beard - growing will begin as of Monday.

The commemoration association officers, in addition to Kelm, include: Gerald Sanders, vice president, and Carl Steitz, secretary - treasurer.

They hope to continue promoting a historical program as a yearly event for Lisbon and Columbiana County "since the location contains more natural history and heritage than any area west of the Alleghenies," Kelm said.

The Mets led the National League last season in grounding into double plays with 147.

Council Backs Police Levy As 'Absolute Need'

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night went on record endorsing passage of the renewal of the police levy, declaring it "an absolute necessity" for the city.

Capt. Pete Trainer spoke from the audience, requesting the action, and pointed out that if the levy fails three men will have to be dropped from the force.

He said the levy provides the salaries for these men and the department would be reduced to four if it became necessary to let them go. He commented that the city could not operate properly with four men, since they couldn't cover all the turns.

THE CAPTAIN also declared he favors using the men on the police eligibility list as extra police in time of need. At present, there is no provision to use those on the list because of legal involvements.

Under an overtime pay arrangement, there is enough money to provide for 100 work days of eight hours. The overtime pay is $2.50 per hour. If the eligibility list is used, the men get less money and it would give the city 43 per cent more time for its money, the captain said.

Councilman William Stoddard pointed out Council went on record urging the use of these men. The legal standing of the eligibility list also was discussed.

Council also adopted legislation establishing Daylight Saving Time from April 25 to October 26.

Charles Donaldson, secretary of the newly - formed Greater Wellsville Association, spoke from the audience, reviewing the formation of the group and its plans. He said he has received a request from the Wall Street Journal on the availability of space in the community for small industries.

COUNCIL directed Wayne Rose, clerk, to send the association a letter congratulating it in its efforts.

Rose also was instructed to write the Pennsylvania Railroad requesting either a full-time watchman or flasher signals at the 18th St. crossing. Frank Moore, taxi operator, died of injuries suffered when his cab was hit by a train on the crossing last week. It was early in the morning and the watchman was not on duty.

Council approved legislation calling for a change in computing the so - called fuel costs passed on to customers, based on raises or reductions in rates paid by the Ohio Valley Gas Co. by its wholesale supplier.

Future changes also will have to be approved in advance with the Federal Power Commission in Washington. Other surrounding areas are considering, or have approved, a similar proposal.

Council agreed to wait until after the primary election May 4 before taking any action on the installation of more street lights. A street light levy is up for renewal.

A DISCUSSION was held as to why the parking meter revenue is declining.

Councilman Dwight MacLean claimed the meters on Main St. between 12th and 13th St. are not policed properly. It was pointed out the meters are not checked on Saturday because of a lack of manpower in the department.

Council ordered a resolution showing the city's approval of establishment of a low - cost housing control board being set up by the Columbiana County commissioners.

Stoddard, franchise chairman, said he received a long - distance telephone call from Rego Industries of Hoboken, N. J., stating the firm has received pole rights from the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. It plans to begin work in the near future on the erection of a community television cable system. A franchise was granted by Council some time ago.

Council ordered legislation to amend the appropriation ordinance. Councilman Paul Todd pointed out Council will have to appropriate $2,685 for a special audit of the city's books made last year. He also said the legislation should contain an appropriation to pay overtime pay to the sewage plant operator.

THE LEGALITY of overtime pay in this instance was questioned as the operator's work schedule has never been set by ordinance.

Councilman Walter Henthorne again raised the question of pinball license fees due the city. He said the mayor reported at the last meeting that Robert Logan, who is considered by some as a distributor and who was at one time the admitted distributor of machines, was two quarters in arrears. He said the legislation states the fee for a distributor, $1,200, is to be paid annually. He said the books do not show any money of this amount paid at all the past year.

The state examiner also had pointed out in his report that Logan was behind in his fees.

Council, as a body, said it wanted it noted that it had not ordered the state examination.

Rose said he objected to the mayor's statement that the refuse department was operating in the black with the purchase of a new truck. He said $3,496 in the depreciation fund was left by a previous administration and without this the department would be in the red.

Vandals Damage Tile At Store Project Site

About 40 pieces of 24-x-48 soundproof ceiling tile were damaged by vandals Tuesday night or this morning on an East End site where a new store building is being constructed, police were told by a sub-contractor.

The damage was reported by Robert Carlton, foreman for the George P. Little Co. of Pittsburgh, which holds a contract for ceiling construction in the new Pic-Way Shoe Store being erected on the Thorofare Market tract on Pennsylvania Ave., police said.

Some of the tile was damaged while in boxes on the construction site, Carlton said. The vandals, apparently using a long pole, also punched holes in some of the tile which had been placed on the ceiling, Carlton said.

Local Delegation To Take Part In Adventist Rally

Youth delegates of the East Liverpool Seventy - Day Adventist Church left today to join about 12,000 others representing 15 northeastern and central Atlantic seaboard states in Atlantic City for the opening session of a four-day Atlantic-Columbia Union Youth Congress.

The youths representing the local church are Rose Urosevic and Robert King, both of Midland. Others attending as non-delegates are Mrs. Helen Urosevic, Mrs. Thelma King and Kathryn Minesinger.

The session marks the third time that a youth congress of the denomination has been held on the east coast. The theme is "Youth and Truth for the Hour."

The four-day program will include clinics for marriage, military service and career problems faced by youth. Thirteen separate sessions will be held daily on specific application of Biblical principles in life situations.

Special features will include a panorama of missions, outstanding youth speakers, a pageant of youth activities, motion pictures and a series on Christian home and education. Workshops in youth evangelism also will be held.

Ted E. Lucas of Washington, D. C., secretary of the Youth Department of the General Conference of Adventists, is scheduled to address the group today.

Officers Cite Girl And Boy In 2 Mishaps

An 18-year-old Glenmoor girl who received a minor injury in a truck-car mishap near Apples Corners Tuesday and an 18 - year-old Glenmoor youth hurt when his Volkswagen overturned on Lisbon St. Ext. yesterday face traffic hearings.

James Cunningham of Cornell Ave. was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon after his auto veered off a curve of Route 267 about a half - mile north of the city, rolled over down a steep embankment and came to rest on its right side. He suffered lacerations and abrasions of the left cheek.

Cookie Mae Underwood of Glenn St. was cited for failure to signal a turn after her 1954 sedan and a truck driven by Robert McKinney of the Y. & O. Rd. collided on Route 30 between Apples Corners and Route 7.

Reservations Are Due For Mayor Breakfast

Reservations are due by Thursday for Wellsville's second annual mayor's prayer breakfast Saturday morning at the First Christian Church under the sponsorship of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club.

They may be made with Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara, chairman.

Robert H. Longsworth, executive director of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation of America in Ohio, will be guest speaker.

Guests will be seated at 7 a. m. and the program will begin at 7:10. The reservations will be limited to 200, O'Hara said.

The breakfast is held to "bring all the citizens of Wellsville together in prayer to work for the common good of the community."

The club also is sponsoring a tour of the city's schools Thursday morning at 9 a. m. Luncheon will be served at noon in the high school cafeteria. Tom Grafton is chairman.

William Miller, president of the Wellsville Jaycees, was guest speaker at a meeting of the club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room. He reviewed the training of new Jaycee members in civic affairs, public speaking and community improvement. The Jaycees also urge members to enter politics.

He said the membership stands at 60, almost double what it was a month ago. The Jaycees have just completed a membership drive.

The Jaycees will hold a candidate night next Monday at 8:30 p. m. at the Jaycee Hall.

Zoning Board Action Upheld

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court Tuesday quashed an appeal of the Iron City Sand and Gravel Co. against a ruling of the Zoning Board of Adjustment of Georgetown.

The action in essence affirmed the opinion of Judge Morgan H. Sohn in upholding the opinion of the Zoning Board, which had refused a certificate of occupancy to the Iron City Co. to excavate land on which it had an option in Georgetown.

The Georgetown Council, in the long-standing dispute, enacted a zoning ordinance to limit the firm's operations early last year, after they had gouged a massive hole on the borough line near the Ohio River to recover sand and gravel.

The dredging concern filed suit against Georgetown Borough, asking Beaver County Court to declare the zoning ordinance invalid, but Judge Sohn later upheld the borough's ordinance and denied the concern the certificate of occupancy it had requested.

The action in effect, prevents the concern from purchasing additional property inside the village limits for excavating, although Iron City has the authority to further enlarge the hole on the property it now owns.

Lisbon Officers Nab 2 Boys For Car Theft

LISBON — Two Johnstown (Pa.) youths are being held by Lisbon police for referral to the Federal Bureau of Investigation following their arrest at 6:30 this morning on charges of theft of an auto at Johnstown.

Police identified the suspects as Leonard R. Fetzer, 18, and a 16-year-old companion. They said the boys admitted stealing the car at Johnstown Tuesday.

The boys also admitted cashing a fraudulent check at 4:30 a. m. today at a Lisbon service station, officers said. Headed for Toledo, they turned around at Canton and were retracing their route when they were cited in Lisbon on a charge of crossing a double yellow line on E. Lincoln Way.

Mike Fuller of Heidelberg, Germany will captain Army's rifle team next season. Last winter he set a West Point record with a 298 score against Penn State.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Several weeks ago I used the last sheet in a conventional style grocery list-pad, and it seemed I could never find anything to jot down my grocery list.

Then, as I was unloading my groceries, I thought, "Why not use the reverse side of the cash register receipt for next week's list?"

It's perfect . . . narrow and long enough that I should never run out of space.

KAY BURRESS.

Kay, you are a cutie!

No more running around looking for a piece of paper to write the grocery list on . . . just thumb tack or tape that cash register tape on your bulletin board, or with a magnet on the refrigarator or metal cabinet, as soon as you take it out of the grocery bag.

HELOISE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I know people think I'm lazy when they see my dirty windows, but I have a good reason. . . .

In summer the dirt filters the sunlight a bit making the house cooler, and in winter when the outdoors is so bare, it keeps people from looking in at me...

DEAR HELOISE: About those boxes of snapshots . . .

Get a cheap loose-leaf binder (like school children use) place snapshot in center of the page, write under it the names of the people and on the opposite page "make-them-come-alive" with several sentences.

My mother has done this for me and now has a series which she calls "From Lamp-light to Satellite"!

She has identified relatives, mentioned how they touched her life and bits of history during her 87 years.

My booklet is priceless and personal!

DOROTHY S. HILLAND.

DEAR HELOISE: I puncture holes in the bottom of an aluminum foil pie pan and use this as a lid for my spaghetti sauce or soup.

It will let the steam out, keep the sauce or soup from becoming watery, and it will prevent the usual splashes and splatters from getting all over the stove.

MRS. GERALD R. MILLER.

Great! Why DON'T manufacturers make SOME lids with holes?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: The crack in that second refrigerator in the garage can easily be patched with the same patching used for surfboards.

Worked wonderfully on the inside of my freezer lid that was accidently cracked.

E.M.C.

DEAR HELOISE: While working on crewel embroidery, I keep each group of colored yarn in a waxed sandwich bag.

It keeps all of the yarn clean, and it is so easy to see the colors I want since the yarn is visible through the waxed paper.

JEAN FARRELL.

Special Ambassador Due On Canal Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is naming a special ambassador to handle negotiations on a possible new canal linking the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

He is John N. Irwin II, 51, a native of Keokuk, Iowa, who lives in New York. Irwin is a former assistant secretary of defense for international security affairs.

Armour To Purchase Ohio-Connected Firm

NEW YORK (AP)—Armour & Co. will purchase Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Corp., the board of the two companies announced Tuesday.

The agreement will be submitted to shareholders of each company for approval. Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton, which has a plant at Lima, Ohio, manufactures heavy industrial machinery.

Italian Chief Confers With U.S. Officials

WASHINGTON (AP) — Italian Premier Aldo Moro planned a second round of conferences today with top U.S. officials.

Moro's first scheduled meeting was with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, just back from a trip to Hawaii to map U.S. plans for the war in Viet Nam.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk was to honor Moro at a luncheon. Then the 48-year-old premier was to hold a second White House talk with President Johnson before issuance of a joint U.S.-Italian communique.

Tuesday Johnson welcomed Moro to the White House and the two held a morning conference. After the premier attended a luncheon given by Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler, he returned to the executive mansion at Johnson's invitation and sat in on a meeting of the President's Cabinet.

Moro and Rusk conferred for almost two hours during the afternoon.

Tuesday night Johnson honored Moro at a White House dinner. Many of the 134 guests were of Italian descent. The President said he is "deeply gratified" for Italian support of U.S. policy in Southeast Asia.

Moro will return the honors tonight, giving a reception in the Johnson's honor at the Italian Embassy.

ADVICE TO TEENAGERS. PLEASE WATCH YOUR DIET

"Mainly from lack of dietary education", said Dr. R. Hillman of State University of N. Y., "eating little or no calory foods, has caused up to three-quarters of our teenagers to be two-thirds deficient in vitamins A & C, thiamin, riboflavin, calcium and iron."

It is hard to resist sickness without nutritive foods and sufficient vitamins. Depend less on hurried snacks and more on good nourishing food. Ask your physician for dietary advice. You will live longer and happier. You will have healthier children.

One Of 4 Arrested Testifies

Jury Nears End Of Probe In Rights Worker Slaying

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — One of the four men originally arrested in the night-rider slaying of Viola Liuzzo testified for about two hours before a Lowndes County grand jury nearing the end of its probe into the case.

Gary Thomas Rowe, 34, of Birmingham, was guarded closely during his appearance Tuesday. Then he was taken to an undisclosed location.

An FBI agent was with him when he slipped into the jury room through a side door of the courthouse and later escorted him out a back door. A number of other agents were in the area.

The government dismissed charges against Rowe some time after his arrest.

Another who testified was Leroy Moton, 19, a Selma Negro who was with Mrs. Liuzzo when gunfire from a passing car killed her a few hours after the end of the Selma-to-Montgomery civil rights march.

The Detroit mother of five was on the way back to Montgomery after taking some marchers to Selma. The shooting occurred March 25 near Lowndesboro on U.S. 80.

Two state investigators, several federal agents and a toxicologist appeared before the jury the past two days.

The other three arrested in the case were indicted by a federal grand jury in Montgomery on charges of conspiring to violate the constitutional rights of demonstrators.

They are Eugene Thomas, 42, and William Orville Eaton, 41, both of Bessemer, and Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, of Fairfield. They are free on bonds of $50,000 each pending arraignment in Montgomery.

President Johnson announced their arrests and said they were member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Meanwhile, sit-ins were in progress at Camden and Montgomery, Ala.

Sheriff P. C. Jenkins said about 200 Negroes, most of them teen-agers, set up camp at Antioch Baptist church in Camden.

"They said they would camp there until the Board of Registrars is moved to the courthouse and meets five days a week," Jenkins said. "I don't know how long that will take."

The registrars' office was shifted from the courthouse to an old jail building for more space nearly two years ago. State law provides for two sessions per month.

About 20 students began a sit-in at the administration building of Alabama State College in Montgomery. They said they were protesting inadequate classroom and library facilities, lack of accreditation, and the college's attitude toward civil rights demonstrations by the students.

In Atlanta, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and members of his staff met with singer Harry Belafonte and civil rights youth leaders to discuss details of an economic boycott on Alabama.

No decision was announced afterward. Belafonte said only that he met with King and leaders of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

At Bogalusa, La., James Farmer, director of the Congress of Racial Equality, led a long line of Negroes, most of them teen-agers, on a 55-minute march through the downtown area to the City Hall.

The demonstrators sang at City Hall while a four-member delegation met with Mayor Jesse Cutrer. Their grievances included a demand that three policemen be fired or suspended for profanity and that laws be enforced equally against whites and Negroes.

The Justice Department filed suit in U.S. District Court at New Orleans, asking that six Bogalusa restaurants be enjoined from refusing service to Negroes.

Other developments on the racial scene included:

— The arrest of 18 Negroes at Jackson, Miss., when they tried to picket a hotel where Sheriff James G. Clark of Selma, Ala., was attending a convention.

— At Boston, Mrs. James J. Reeb, wife of a Unitarian minister slain during the Selma voter registration campaign, was presented a check for $41,000 by James E. Mills, editor of the Birmingham Post-Herald.

The money was contributed by people throughout the nation. It will be used to set up a trust fund for Mrs. Reeb and her four children.

Driver Given Probation In Road Fatality

Gene A. Miller, 24, of Salem, was granted two years' probation Tuesday by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp at Lisbon on a second - degree manslaughter charge filed in the traffic death of an East Liverpool man in December on Route 7 southeast of Columbiana.

Miller was charged as an aftermath of a collision between his car and the auto of Samuel Hayes, 20, of St. Clair Ave. at the junction of Routes 7 and 46. Authorities alleged that Miller's car, emerging from the side road, struck Mr. Hayes' auto broadside. Injured on Dec. 13, Mr. Hayes died Dec. 14.

Judge Sharp also suspended Miller's operator's permit for a year.

Three others also received probation in hearings before Judge Sharp yesterday.

Frank E. Grafton, 26, of Salem, was placed on probation for five years in connection with a burglary Dec. 23 at the Davidson Sales and Service Garage in Salem in which he allegedly took $85 worth of tools owned by Jerry Mounts, an employe.

Larry Blake, 25, of East Palestine, charged with rape of a 15-year-old East Palestine area girl, also was placed on probation for five years.

The court ordered five years' probation for Vincent LeRoy Miller, 21, also of Salem, indicted on carges of auto theft and operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Public Tea Scheduled To Honor Mrs. Rahter

A public tea will be held Thursday night at 8 at American Legion Post 70 in Wellsville for Mrs. Mary Rahter, president of City Council.

The event is being held by her associates to honor her for her many activities. She is a Democratic mayorality candidate in the May 4 primary election.

A short program will be held. Refreshments will be served.

If you like almond flavor, you may add a few drops of almond extract to the syrup from canned peaches and then let the peaches stand in this syrup (in the refrigerator) until serving time.

Driver Improvement Course To Be Held Next Wednesday

LISBON — The Columbiana County Farm Bureau women's committee will sponsor a driver improvement program next Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 3 p.m. at the Mt. Nebo Grange Hall, between Lisbon and Salem.

The announcement was made jointly by Mrs. Clyde Farmer of Salem R. D. 3, chairman, and Patrolman Anthony Dominic of the State Highway Patrol, which is cooperating statewide in the program.

The program, emphasizing "defensive driving," has eight different phases and will be completed at the one session, Mrs. Farmer reported. "We are expecting more than 150 to attend."

The Highway Patrol and Cooperative Extension Service safety experts are cooperating in the campaign.

Col. Anson B. Cook, state Highway Patrol superintendent, said, "This type of program long has been needed, because even good drivers need to refresh their memories on proper driving habits."

It is anticipated that between 12,000 and 14,000 will take part in this program over the state. "If it saves one life on the highway, we can consider it a success," Col. Cook said.

Others assisting in the program are:

Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin; Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis; Charles DeJulius, driver education instructor at East Liverpool; George Trombitas, principal of Leetonia High School, and O. D. Mason, Nationwide insurance agent.

GOP Group Urges Johnson 'Break Ice,' Visit DeGaulle

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of Republicans in the House of Representatives has asked President Johnson to "break the ice" and visit French President Charles de Gaulle.

The suggestion was made Tuesday in a letter to Johnson from a GOP group called the Committee on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

It said that France and the United States are "sorely at odds" and the "icy discord between these two oldest allies has engendered broader disunion in NATO an thus endangers individual liberty everywhere."

—:—

WASHINGTON (AP) — American Legion National Commander Donald Johnson of West Branch, Iowa, says proposals to stop bombing North Viet Nam for a time now would accomplish nothing "except to help the Viet Cong to realign their forces and strengthen their military position."

Johnson's remarks were apparently aimed at demonstrations here last weekend by thousands of students against U.S. policies in Viet Nam and the proposal by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman, J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., for a trial halt of the bombings.

—:—

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mary Brooks, an Idaho state senator and widow of Sen. C. Wayland Brooks, R-Ill., will be the new assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Chairman Ray C. Bliss announced Tuesday that Mrs. Brooks, whom he called "exceedingly capable," would succeed Mrs. Pat Hutar on May 15 as the committee's top-ranking woman.

Mrs. Brooks, daughter of the late Sen. John Thomas, R-Idaho, married Brooks in 1945. He died in 1957.

At present she is managing the family ranch at Muldoon, Idaho.

World's Fair Opens With Big Parade

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York World's Fair opens its second and final season today with a fireworks display, a big parade and ceremonial speeches by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and West German Mayor Willy Brandt.

After six months in cold storage, the billion-dollar exposition blossoms forth with some 30,000 employes manning the 168 pavilions.

Fair skies and moderate temperatures were predicted.

Last year's opening, when a disappointing crowd of 89,137 showed up, was marred by a chill rain and arrests of more than 300 civil rights demonstrators.

Robert Moses, the fair's president, predicts 37.5 million persons will pay to see the fair in its final 180 days. In 1964, when 40 million were expected, the attendance was 27 million and losses mounted to $17.5 million.

Operating costs have been cut and the admission price raised 50 cents to $2.50 for adults. Children still are admitted for $1.

First on line at the main gate was Gary Schustr, 17, of Orangeburg, N.Y., who had been camped there with a sleeping bag since Monday morning.

Highway Patrol Seeks Applicants For Next School

As 37 recruits enter the fourth week of training at the Columbus Academy, the Ohio Highway Patrol is seeking qualified applicants for the next school, scheduled to begin July 12.

According to Col. Anson B. Cook, superintendent of the patrol, only about 10 per cent of the applicants are accepted for the rigorous 14 weeks of physical and classroom training.

When the current class ends on June 28, the 37 men will have completed nearly 625 hours of intensive classroom study and physical training. Following graduation, the new patrolmen will be assigned to specially-selected veteran officers who will oversee them.

During this "coach-pupil" period, the young officers will receive benefit of the veterans' experience.

Cadets at the academy are taught traffic enforcement and accident investigation; police techniques and procedures; criminal investigation; law, evidence and criminal procedures; use of firearms; typing, and water safety.

Col. Cook said applications for the next class will be accepted until June 15. Recruits must be between 21 and 35. Other requirements are a high school education, at leat 5 feet, 9 inches in height, 160 pounds, good physical condition and moral character.

Graduate patrolmen begin at a salary of $460 per month, with regular increases up to $550 per month.

Full information and applications are available to qualified men upon request in person at any patrol post.

The dodo bird, which is found in so many crossword puzzles, became extinct in about 1680. This bird was closely related to the pigeon, but was very awkward. Its name comes from the Portuguese, meaning silly or foolish.

Bids To Force Moscow-U.S. Quarrel

Renewed Chinese Threat Stirs Communist Contest

Red China's renewed threat to send volunteers to Viet Nam appears to be a result of a contest between the two big Communist powers. The contest is bringing about the Communists' own form of escalation of the peril in Southeast Asia.

The Red Chinese have seemed to be trying to force Moscow to become more and more involved in a bellicose quarrel with the United States. Peking now indicates it believes it is on the way to achieving such a goal.

The standing committee of the National People's Congress in Peking announces it has called on Chinese organizations to "make preparations" to send their own people to fight the Americans in Viet Nam.

The question is whether this is a real threat to intervene or a signal to the Communist world that Red China is more willing and more able than the Soviet Union to call the shot in Southeast Asia. The latter seems the case.

Peking — as before — still is "prepared" to send volunteers. It has not said it will send them. Several ifs are attached to the broadside — if "U.S. imperialism continues to escalate" the war; if the Vietnamese ask such help. Peking will be the judge of the first if. As for the second, there are strong doubts that Hanoi is anxious to have a flood of Chinese volunteers.

There is strong evidence that the Moscow-Peking struggle for influence in the Communist and underdeveloped worlds is involved in Peking's threats.

As if accusing the Russians of failing in their duty to the world revolution, the Peking announcement said: "The Chinese people have always been infinitely loyal in fulfilling their proletarian internationalist obligations. They have never spared any sacrifice whatever in this respect. They always mean what they say. Both past and present struggles testify to this."

For the present, the Red Chinese are likely to leave well enough alone. In the first place, they appear to be satisfied that from their point of view the war is producing cruel attrition against South Viet Nam and equally cruel attrition on U.S. nerves and staying power.

It is extremely doubtful that Ho Chi Min, North Viet Nam's leader, wants Chinese volunteers. Repeatedly, North Viet Nam's propaganda has pronounced the willingness of the Vietnamese to hold out 20 years, if necessary, for unification of the country on Hanoi's terms.

But the Russian voice, denouncing the Americans and promising more help to North Viet Nam, has become louder and more insistent, as if prodded by the contest with the Chinese.

When the Russians stepped up their promises and their denunciations of the United States, the Chinese apparently sought not only to match the Russians but go them one better.

Nevertheless, Peking has been prudent about its own involvement and the prospects of a direct showdown with American power. Volunteers might be "preparing" to go to Viet Nam, but the chances are they will not be sent unless the Chinese see a possibility that the Americans can win.

Assist In Raising Levees

Adults Credit Children In Helping Battle Floods

CLINTON, Iowa, (AP) — Grownups who have been battling angry floods in the Midwest for nearly a month are quick to give credit for the help of school children.

If the youngsters sometimes seem to get underfoot filling and hauling sandbags it can be laid to eagerness. But officials concede that without their help many a levee couldn't have been raised in time.

Among the thousands of high school and junior high pupils who have enlisted in the fight against the Mississippi River were the children on the job here Tuesday.

Fifteen of nearly 1,300 who had been excused from school for the day were at the spot where sandbags had been placed on top of a cinder block wall behind the Clinton baseball stadium.

A section of the wall collapsed without warning and 15 boys and girls were injured.

Danny Waters, 12, and Barbara Hodges, 16, with leg fractures; and Tim Leonard, 13, with back injuries, were hospitalized. The others were treated for cuts and bruises and released.

The Rev. James Coonroy, chaplain at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, said: "The kids were all in the hallway, either sitting on chairs or lying on litters. They were terrific. They were trying to comfort each other and keep their spirits up."

Some of the youngsters were on Easter vacation but not those at Clinton High School. School Supt. R.T. Grau said before the accident that those excused for work on the flood project had to bring written consent from their parents.

Gov. Harold Hughes was in the area conferring with officials on steps taken to hold back the river. He saw school children at work with their elders.

"People are quick to criticize our kids," he said. "Here on the river they have worked longer and harder than some of the adults. They deserve a lot of credit."

In Clinton, all school absences were canceled today. City authorities said there was no further need for student volunteers.

Other past officers who attended the meeting were Miss Alberta Stravinsky, secretary, Mrs. Laura Barmer, treasurer, and Mrs. Bessie Hood, chaplain.

Director Of Budget To Resign On June 1

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kermit Gordon, director of the Bureau of the Budget since December 1962, is resigning about June 1 to become vice president of the Brookings Institution, a private research center.

He will be succeeded by Charles L. Schultze, who quit less than 10 weeks ago as assistant budget director and was told by President Johnson: "I hope that I may call on you for help in the future because we have much unfinished business to see to."

The shift was announced Tuesday by the White House.

Schultze, 40, left the government Feb. 12 to resume his teaching career as a professor of economics at the University of Maryland.

Asks Meeting To Discuss It

Sen. King Prods Rhodes On Bipartisan Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Frank W. King of Toledo has called on Gov. James A. Rhodes for a meeting to draw up a bipartisan legislative program.

King released contents of a telegram he sent to the GOP governor at a testimonial dinner Tuesday night in King's honor.

More than 500 of the Democratic party faithful, including legislators and party officials, attended the dinner here, described as a tribute to King for his many years of public service.

In the telegram, King told Rhodes he is willing to meet anytime, "an hour from now or at any noon or night" to discuss matters on which the two parties can agree.

Rhodes said today, "The door to the governor's office has always been open." He said he had sent copies of King's telegram to Senate Majority Leader Ted Gray and House Speaker Roger Cloud and had "asked Sen. Gray to renew this assurance to Sen. King."

The 106th General Assembly, now midway in its fourth month, has completed action only a handful of bills, none of any major significance. The main reason is the evenly divided Senate in which neither party can get a bill passed without at least one vote from the opposition.

Meanwhile, the House was scheduled to vote today on a worked-over measure authorizing a feasibility study of piping water from Lake Erie into North Central Ohio counties.

Rep. Howard A. Knight, R-Sandusky, authored the proposal which was recommended for passage last week after the House Finance Committee took out a proposed $40,000 appropriation to pay for the study.

Knight and other sponsors said the committee decided funds could come from the Development Department, which would make the study in cooperation with the Ohio Water Commission.

The study would involve a proposed pipeline to carry water from Lake Erie into the Portage, Huron, Sandusky, Black River, and Vermilion River Basins, which have surface waters draining into Lake Erie.

Highway safety measures made progress in both houses of the legislature Tuesday although one passed by the Senate prompted one of the longest bipartisan debates of the session.

The measure, which now goes to the house, would require twice-a-year safety inspections for all registered vehicles in Ohio after January 1, 1967.

Motorists would pay $2 for each inspection with 20 cents of the fee returned to the state and the remainder going to private inspectors licensed by the state for $15 a year.

The House approved 124-8 a Senate-approved bill requiring seat belts in all new cars after Jan. 1, 1966. The measure now must go back to the Senate for action on an amendment taking out a penalty for failure of motorists to "buckle up."

Legislation authorizing the Health Department to phase out unneeded tuberculosis hospitals and requiring children to be six years old by Sept. 15 of the year they enter the first grade also received House approval.

Fourteen new bills were offered in the House after Speaker Roger W. Cloud, R-Logan, announced a cutoff date of April 29 for introduction of measures.

Rep. David Albritton, R-Montgomery, and others proposed that separate departments be made of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction while Rep. Charles A. Mooney, D-Cuyahoga, offered a bill to divide his county into four new congressional districts with a mean population of 412,000.

Victor In Previous Battles

AMA Plans All-Out Fight Against Health Care Bill

CHICAGO (AP) — The American Medical Association, victor in all its previous battles against compulsory health insurance, plans to carry its fight to the final bell against the Johnson administration's health-care-for-the-aged bill.

"We will testify before the Senate Finance Committee against the medicare bill," Dr. E.B. Howard, assistant executive vice president of the AMA said today. "We still feel the eldercare bill is superior to this one."

The health-care bill backed by the Johnson administration passed the House earlier this month by a 313-115 vote. It is now before the Senate. The House Ways and Means Committee, which approved the medicare bill, did not consider the rival AMA-backed eldercare bill.

Dr. Donovan F. Ward, AMA president, criticized the House committee for tying in what he termed a "justified increase" in Social Security cash retirement benefits with the health-care legislation. He also criticized the committee for failing to consider the eldercare program.

He said that the health-care program would "centralize control over many aspects of the practice of medicine in a federal bureaucracy" and result in poorer health care for all American people.

"We are opposed to increasing taxes on wage earners to pay hospital bills for everyone over 65, regardless of their income, Ward said.

"We hope the Senate will proceed with caution and will conduct full and fair public hearings so that this bill can be thoroughly understood by everyone."

The AMA spent nearly $1 million earlier this year in a whirlwind campaign aimed at winning public support for the eldercare program. That plan would provide hospital and medical care for persons over 65 who need financial help to meet such expenses.

The health-care bill would raise Social Security taxes, boost cash retirement benefits and provide retirement health care benefits to all eligible persons. It also would extend the present Kerr-Mills medical assistance for the needy-aged program to all indigents.

Circus Show Slated For Houston Stadium

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — They're going to bring the circus to the biggest big top yet, Houston's new domed stadium.

To get here the Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Circus will make the longest detour in its 95-year history.

Wolcott Fenner, vice president and director of promotions, said Tuesday the show will travel from Toronto to Houston and then double back to Chicago after six performances June 10-13.

He said the stadium's 50,000 seats for a circus crowd would compensate for the added mileage.

12th Azalea Festival Opens In Norfolk, Va.

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Norfolk's 12th annual Azalea Festival opens today with the arrival of the festival queen, Luci Baines Johnson, 17, the President's younger daughter.

Luci's arrival at Norfolk Airport heralds four days of festivities which come to a climax Saturday with the arrival of the remainder of the Johnson family and the coronation of Queen Luci. The President is scheduled to place the crown on her head.

Old Indictments Are Dismissed

CLEVELAND (AP) — A federal judge has dismissed two-year-old indictments against six alleged associates of slain financial manipulator Mervin Gold.

Gold, who organized the Cosmopolitan Small Business Investment Co. was found shot to death in the trunk of his car on July 5, 1963. The murder is still unsolved.

The six men had been indicted in 1963 with Gold and charged with defrauding the U. S. Small Business Administration in a $150,000 loan transaction in 1961.

U. S. District Court Judge Frank J. Battisti dismissed indictments against David Weinberg, George Zimmerman, Nathan S. Lipsyc, Sanford J. Safier, William H. Kahan and Robert H. Weiner. Percy Harvey, who also was indicted, is deceased.

$2,019 Paid For Use Of Copters By LBJ

Hancock Board Budget Okayed

Approval of the 1965-66 budget by the West Virginia Tax Commission was announced at a meeting Tuesday night of the Hancock County Board of Education.

The budget was approved as drawn up, and no changes were necessary, Supt. Robert H. Hall said.

The following levy rates for general current expense were approved: Class I property, 45.9 cents per hundred; Class II, 91.8; Class III, 183.6; and Class IV, 183.6.

The levy rate for the bond interest and sinking fund:

Class I, 8.12 cents per hundred; Class II, 16.24; Class III, 32.48; and Class IV, 32.48.

The board adopted the salary schedule for teachers within the budget. Beginning teachers with an A.B. degree, with no experience, will receive $5,178. Maximum salary for a teacher with an A.B. degree, with 16 years experience, is $7,205.

Beginning master's salary is $5,605, and maximum master's salary, with 16 years experience, is $7,689.

Salary schedules for non-teaching personnel also were adopted. Building custodians were granted a $20-a-month increase, raising the total salary for 12 months to $4,080. Bus drivers' salaries were increased $10 to $20 a month, depending on experience. Secretaries were granted an increase of $20 a month and instructional aides $10 a month.

Resignations of two teachers, Joy A. Labishak and Claudette Mousadis, were accepted.

Two elementary teachers, Ruth Arlene McCade and Elizabeth M. Pugh, were employed.

The requests of Dominic Amadeo for Miss Carolyn Mountford to be absent from her duties on April 29 to attend the librarians' meeting at West Liberty State College; of C. P. Smith for Mrs. Florence Lipman to attend the same meeting; of Ruth A. Morgan for Miss Ethel Zakutansky to attend the West Virginia Home Economics Association conference April 30 in Jacksons Mill, and of E. Russell Slack for two students from Oak Glen to attend the Plymouth troubleshooting contest in Charleston on May 1, were granted.

The next meeting will be May 10.

Improvement Fund Step Advocated For Hancock

Richard Shelton of Charleston, executive secretary of the West Virginia County Officials Association, Tuesday recommended to the Hancock County Court of Commissioners that "in order to save thousands of dollars" the county should attempt to have a capital improvement fund bill passed by the next session of the state legislature.

Shelton made this recommendation after the commissioners revealed the state tax commissioner returned their 1965-66 budget with a directive that the $19,000 they had earmarked for the beginning of a jail building fund be placed instead in a fund titled "repairs to the jail".

The state tax commissioner said it was impossible for a levying body to earmark funds from the current budget for a future project.

The commissioners instituted the new fund last month when drawing up the budget and planned to add to it over the years until they have enough money to build a new jail.

However, Shelton said under state law if the legislature would give the county a special capital improvement fund the commissioners can take surplus money and invest it with either the state sinking fund or locally and draw interest on the money.

He said in this way the county can get a large portion of the cost of a new jail or courthouse out of the interest payments and thus save the taxpayers thousands of dollars.

Shelton attended the yesterday's meeting to answer several questions which the commissioners have found puzzling.

He recommended that the county go into this capital improvement fund rather than issue bonds for the building of a new jail. He pointed out that if a bond issue were adopted the county would have to pay interest instead of receiving interest.

When questioned by Commissioner Jack Evans of New Cumberland, Shelton said the county officials association is designed to strengthen county and local governments. He said its aims are to combat against those people who recommend stronger state and national governments, thus de-emphasizing local government.

Evans said the commissioners have been criticized for budgeting $1,300 for membership in the association. Shelton advised that the county pay their membership fees according to population and their ability to pay. He said counties such as Hancock, who pay a little more than their share, are helping to strengthen the organization by paying a share of the fees required from counties which can afford to pay nothing.

He recommended that all counties stay in the association in order to keep from being overlooked by state officials. He said his office exerts much time to preparing legislation, research, public relations, and influencing legislators and other state officials on individual county problems.

The commissioners agreed to send James Finley of Weirton, president of the county court, to Charleston on April 26 to attend the board of directors meeting of the county officials' group. Finley will take the place on the board of Commissioner William Graham of Chester, who said he will not be able to attend the session. Graham is a member of the Board of Directors of the association.

The commissioners voted 2-1, with Graham dissenting not to pay the bill of $200 submitted by Sheriff Joe Rodak for an audit completed on the county tax office records in January by William Dumbaugh, a Weirton accountant.

Commissioners Evans and Finley said they felt the bill is a duplication of payments in that they still have to pay for a state audit on the same records.

This also was the opinion of Floyd Tarr, prosecuting attorney and legal adviser for the commissioners.

Tarr said the commissioners could legally pay the bill, if they desired.

Graham moved that the bill be paid on the condition that Rodak be held responsible if the state tax commissioner rules the $200 was spent illegally. However, his motion died for lack of a second.

Bids Are Due On Police Car

Mrs. John Parsons, secretary, was authorized to advertise for bids on a new police car at a meeting of the Industry Borough Council Tuesday night.

Louis Phillips, chairman of the fire and police committee, had recommended that the bids be sought. They will be opened at the next regular session of the council May 5.

A discussion was held on a storm sewer to be installed on Avondale Dr. The matter was referred to the borough engineers, Michael Baker Jr., Inc. of Beaver Falls.

Homer Paul, president, announced that the Stanley Tree Service of Beaver Falls will begin spraying within the next 30 days at the St. Paul Cemetery.

Council accepted the report of auditor Joseph Fiedida.

Chief of Police Ray Hendershot gave the mayor's report for March. It showed 16 complaints, five accidents, two arrests and 1,080 miles on the police car.

Bills totaling $2,229 were paid. Paul presided. The next meeting will be May 5.

Calendar Set By County's School Board

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Education completed recommendations for the 1965-66 school calendar at a meeting Tuesday night at the courthouse.

The schedule is: Sept. 8 to Oct. 15, first six weeks of school; Oct. 18 to Nov. 24, second six weeks; Nov. 29 to Jan. 21, third six weeks; Jan. 24 to March 4, fourth six weeks; March 7 to April 15, fifth six weeks, and April 18 to May 29, sixth six weeks.

This provides a total of 176 school days with the Columbiana County Education Association meeting Oct. 29 and the East Central Ohio Teachers Association meeting Nov. 5.

It includes Thanksgiving, Nov. 25-26; Christmas vacation Dec. 24 to Jan. 3, and Easter vacation, April 8-11th.

This schedule is recommended for adoption by the Beaver Local, Fairfield - Waterford, Southern Local and United Local schools.

Mrs. Frances Brenner of Hanoverton reported that one of United Local's school board members — Henry Loudon — is living outside the United Local district, and his children are also going to United without paying tuition. He is presently renting in Southern Local district until a new home under construction is being completed, it was reported.

The board voted to ask County Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis for a ruling on the legality of his living in Southern Local District while remaining on the United Local board and having his children attended United schools without paying tuition.

Supt. James L. McBride read a letter from James Panock of Fort Wayne, Ind., asking if the county is going to recommend a course of study on the Bible in its county schools. The board took no action on the matter.

McBride discussed developments in proposals for a county vocational school and a community college. He read a letter from Mrs. Donald Myers, a speech student at the Kent State Center in Salem, signed by 15 students in her class, requesting a county vocational school.

He also discussed lowering of taxes of a coal company in the Beaver Local district which allegedly owed $12,000 in taxes. He said a lien was placed against the firm, but for some reason these taxes were lowered to $5,600. Since the schools get approximately 70 per cent of taxes, the Beaver Local district lost several thousand dollars in taxes McBride said.

The board also discussed duplicating bus routes of different school districts and instructions to relief bus drivers.

Fred Lohman, attendance officer, reported he made 82 calls during the month — 52 to schools and 30 to homes. He traveled 1,050 miles.

Bills of $153.75 were paid. The board will meet May 18.

The United States mint cannot change a coin's design for 25 years without congressional approval. The Jefferson nickel has been in use since 1938 and now may be legally changed, but officials say the mint has been too busy meeting coin shortages to switch to a new nickel design.

Court Suspends Driver's Permit Under Point Law

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered a six-month suspension in the driver's license of Morley Cleve Marsdem of R. D. 3, cited into court by the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles under the so-called 12-point demerit system as an "habitual traffic violator."

In certifying the action to the local court, the BMV reported Marsdem had accumulated 12 points — two more than the number required for a suspension. The state agency said he was convicted of driving while intoxicated last March 17 and on June 7, 1964, both at East Palestine, and also was fined for speeding last April 9.

The court granted Morley the right to use his license during the suspension period, but only to drive to and from his work.

Asst. Prosecutor Charles Lang appeared for the state, while Marsdem was represented by Atty. Barry Dixon of East Palestine.

2 Will Inspect Park

LISBON — Melvin Rebholz, chief of the Ohio Division of Parks, and Kenneth McElroy, chief landscape architect for the state, will visit Beaver Creek State Forest Park Thursday afternoon and then will be guests at a meeting of the Columbiana County Forests and Parks Council at 8 p. m. at St. George's Parish Hall, according to Floyd Lower, secretary of the council.

Latin Club Sets Trip

SALINEVILLE — Eighty members of the Southern Local High School Latin Club will visit Pittsburgh Friday, Thomas Leek, principal, has announced. Lewis Chambers, Latin instructor, is in charge of the trip, which will include visits to the Carnegie Museum and the Buhl Planetarium.

Students Tell Of Cincinnati Trip

Three area high school juniors who attended the 19th annual World Affairs Institute at Cincinnati April 9 and 10 under sponsorship of the East Liverpool Rotary Club, discussed their experiences at the conference during the noon luncheon meeting of the club Tuesday at the Travelers Hotel.

Above, George Hargraves, chairman of the Youth Service Committee of Rotary, reviews the trip with Ivan Howell, who represented Oak Glen, Daryl Seckman of Beaver Local and David Emmerling of East Liverpool.

The youths described various phases of the institute, which played host to some 900 students from the United States and 25 foreign countries.

The theme of the meeting, co-sponsored by the Cincinnati Council of World Affairs, the Crosley Broadcasting Corp. and the Rotary clubs, was "United States and France — Old Allies and New Problems."

Emmerling is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Emmerling of 412 Thompson Ave. Seckman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne E. Seckman of R.D. 3 and Howell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Howell of 211 Grant St., Newell.

Each was selected for the trip by officials of their various schools.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: For a long time I've gotten a lot of laughs out of the wacky people who have written to you. Now perhaps I'm the wackiest one of all. I'm in the middle 70s and have been a widow for many years.

I'm in good health and always have been considered a pretty woman. After my husband passed away I didn't believe I ever could love again. Two months ago I feel absolutely mad, crazy in love. I have never felt like this before —not even about my husband.

I want to marry this man but I'm afraid the feeling is not mutual. If it were, he'd be begging me to marry him (and he is not). The man is my age and we don't have too many years left.

We are keeping our affair a secret at his request. Please tell this silly old woman what to do. — ASHAMED OF MYSELF.

Dear Ashamed: The second-from-the-last sentence in your letter is the tipoff. Why would a man in his middle 70s wish to keep his interest in a woman a secret? Surely he is not afraid of his parents.

Unless your friend is willing to take you out publicly and treat you with respect and dignity, tell him to go wear out someone else's upholstery.

Early Arrivals

Dear Ann: You have dealt in your column with guests who arrive late, but what do you suggest for guests who arrive early?

The other evening one couple (notorious for arriving early) showed up at 6 p.m. for my 7 o'clock dinner party. I was in the shower. The woman I engaged to help serve the dinner had not yet arrived.

I greeted my guests in a shower cap and bathrobe, which was horribly embarrassing. Then I had to rush to get dressed. I was so nervous I couldn't even comb my hair properly.

How does one deal with a problem of this type? I have thought of not answering the doorbell but this is unrealistic since they know someone must be at home. — HELPLESS.

Dear Helpless: Guests who show up an hour early are as childish as those who show up an hour late.

Of course, you must let let them in, but you don't have to entertain them. Tell them they are very early and excuse yourself. Take your own sweet time about getting dressed or doing whatever needs to be done. Appear in the living room at precisely "party time" — and make no apologies.

Real Blooper

Dear Ann: For a gal who usually can cut through to the core and get to the real problem, you made a blooper in your reply to "Disappointed Son."

You told him the reason his mother didn't like his kids (she made the 5-year-old get off her lap because he was wrinkling her dress) was because Mama did not like his wife and the kids were an "extension" of her.

This is just surface stuff, and unworthy of you. The real reason is that Mama would not have liked any girl Sonny married because she wants him all to herself. She considers the wife and the kids competition and while she hasn't anything against them, she just hates to be beat out by anybody.

I'll bet my bottom dollar Mama is divorced or a widow. Usually these mothers, in an attempt to keep Sonny single, resort to phony heart attacks, bad backs and headaches.

When these sons can shake loose of their guilt for not putting Mama first, and go on to lead normal lives, it's wonderful. Unfortunately, some of them can't make the grade. — A SINGLE GAL WHO KNOWS.

-:-

Dear Single Girl: You sound like a loser to me, but maybe it's just as well. There are worse fates than going it alone. And being married to a Mama's boy can be murder, as many women will testify.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

School Credit Union's Plan Detailed To Teacher Board

Representatives of the Columbiana County School Employes Credit Union, Inc., spoke at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the East Liverpool Teachers Association Tuesday afternoon at Central School.

Speaking were Loren Ruff, president of the credit union, and Chester Urbschat, treasurer. They were introduced by Jerry Russell, principal of East Junior High School.

Details of the plan were explained to the directors, who in turn will present it to the school employes. Eligible personnel can become members by investing $5 and paying a membership fee of 25 cents. The union promotes systematic saving and provides a loan service with low interest rates, the speakers said.

The board authorized a letter of commendation to Asst. Supt. George Hargraves for the two-day conference held last week at Westgate School.

A local leaders' conference will be held at Kent State University Aug. 22-25. East Liverpool is permitted to send two delegates.

The association and the Ohio Education Association commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards will present letters of congratulations to graduating seniors who plan to enter college to study for the teaching profession.

Austen B. Moore, president, and Tony LaNeve, president - elect, were selected as delegate and alternate, respectively, to the National Education Association convention in New York City June 27-July 2.

Dean Forsythe, Keith Dunlevy and LaNeve were appointed to the auditing committee. William Wilson and LaNeve will attend a presidents' clinic Saturday at Jackson High School in Stark County.

The East Central Ohio Teachers Association workshop will be Saturday at Carrollton High School.

A general meeting of the association will be held May 6. A film on the PEP program will be screened.

A budget for the year was submitted by Mrs. Lillie Belle Leonard, treasurer and budget committee chairman. The board will meet again May 18.

Tests Are Set In Road-E-O

Tests for the Teen-age Road-E-O sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be given Thursday and Friday at 4 p. m. in Room 204 of East Liverpool High School.

The written exams and the driving skill test, to be held Saturday, will be used in determining the local winner, according to Frank Mangano, chairman.

Anyone under 19 years of age with a driving license is permitted to enter. The contest is open to youths in the East Liverpool and Beaver Local High School districts.

Parents are urged to have their children enter, as it provides an insight into their driving skill, Mangano said. All participants in the event will be given jacket badges.

Two winners are chosen, a boy and a girl. They will be given plaques by the Jaycees.

The scores on the written exams will be announced at the driving test at Westgate School parking lot. This phase will begin at 11 a. m. Saturday. All participants are asked to report by 10:30.

They will be required to drive cars through an obstacle course. East Liverpool Central Service is providing the cars.

Refreshments will be served. Mangano's committee includes Tate Hilbert, Al Fricano and Dale Kidd. The prizes on the national level include $4,900 in scholarships and a new car.

Turnout Disappoints Lisbon Levy Backers

LISBON — Backers of a proposed new 4-mill school levy for the Lisbon School District in the May 4 primary election today expressed disappointment over the small turnout at a public meeting on the levy Tuesday night at the McKinley School.

The levy, submitted for the fourth time in recent years, has been termed "a must" by the board of education.

Supt. Oliver Payne said he plans to work out a program to inform the public of the vital need for the levy funds for the school system.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures are expected to average 4 to 6 degrees above normal during the period from Thursday morning to Tuesday morning. Representative normal highs and lows are Cleveland 61-39, Columbus 66-42, Cincinnati 68-43.

Warm throughout the period with only minor day-to-day changes but with highest temperatures expected Sunday. Precipitation will average about ½ inch as showers Friday and showers and thundershowers Sunday.

The largest sculptures in the world are at Mount Rushmore, in South Dakota — the granite busts of Presidents Washington, Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt and Lincoln. These busts are proportionate to men 465 feet high, and the distance from the top of Washington's head to his chin is 60 feet.

City Man's Truck Hit In Route 152 Mishap

A dump truck operated by Walter Galloway, 51, of 807 Dewey Ave. was involved in an accident Tuesday at 10 a. m. on Route 152 west of Empire, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Wintersville reported.

Officers said Galloway's truck and a parked tractor - trailer truck operated by Frederick L. Saylor, 28, of Trinway were struck by another dump truck driven by Samuel S. Busick, 30, of Steubenville.

Minor damage resulted to the city man's vehicle, but the other two were heavily damaged. Busick pulled left to pass the parked tractor trailer rig and hit the oncoming Galloway truck and the parked truck, officers said.

AP Newsman Praised For Viet Action

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. military spokesman publicly commended Associated Press newsman John T. Wheeler today for his action Sunday in helping wounded soldiers get out of heavy Viet Cong fire.

"Both Vietnamese and American authorities on the scene were grateful for Wheeler's help," the spokesman said.

Wheeler was with a large government unit in an operation near Thang Binh, 30 miles northeast of here when the Viet Cong mounted a powerful counterattack supported by artillery. For the first time, the Viet Cong used a pair of heavy 4.2-inch mortars they captured from a government post last fall. Shells from these guns are as heavy and destructive as anything in use on the government side.

Under a withering barrage of shells and machine-gun fire, the left flank of the Vietnamese marine unit Wheeler was with broke and the operation turned into a rout. Government forces were pushed steadily back out of the Viet Cong trenches they had first occupied and the Viet Cong guns caused many casualties.

Five American advisers were wounded.

Wheeler found one of the wounded Americans in a daze. Abandoning his field pack and cameras so he could move through the tight trenchworks, Wheeler grabbed the wounded American and began leading him back, Viet Cong slugs snapping past all the while.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Temper Tantrums Can Be Controlled

Nearly everything said or written on tantrums deals with the baby and tot under 4 or 5. What of tantrums in the child over 5 or 6, even of the child 10 or 15? They do occur in some of these older children. The usual advice in case of the tot two, three or four —to keep calm, do nothing and say nothing, while the youngster is violently enraged, except when this child is endangering persons or property — is good advice when the older child is enraged.

Dr. Garry Myers

When the tantrum in a child 6, 10 or 14 is in relation to a parent, this parent is not only inclined to grow very angry too, but to use angry, sometimes abusive words. And this wordy warfare may go on and on, even reaching fisticuffs.

Such scenes can be truly pathetic, especially between father and son.

OFTEN, TOO, when the older child is enraged, either parent is likely to exhort and lecture to him. No matter how good the content of this parental advice then, which is often whined or shouted, it usually does far more harm than good. The parent is not fit then to give the advice or the child to profit from it.

Besides this, it renders future advice at peaceful times less effective. It builds a wall between the parent and child and destroys desirable relationship henceforth.

Most times, violent and abusive language hurled in rage at the parent by a child 8, 12 or 15, had better be met with serenity and silence. Even if this child is throwing something then, not at any person, it's hardly the time to resort to forceful measures.

It's better to wait till the emotional turbulence has subsided, even for several hours, perhaps, to say anything. Then, at a moment of companionship, the parent might, in quiet persuasive words and tones, lead the child to see the folly of his most recent tantrum and feel the wish to work on himself for better self - control when he begins to feel angry.

HOW WELL you can be able to step into serious emergency when you are sure you should, to stop the violent words or acts, will depend first on your own self - control; then on how well you have established control of this child when he was two, three or four. It's almost impossible to imagine effective use of any necessary controlling measures with the child 6 to 15 which are not dependent on how well he had learned in his very early years to accept No as final.

However, let us remember that while the "Good Book" commands children to obey their parents, it also admonishes us parents not to provoke our children to wrath.

My bulletins, "Tantrums" and "How to Control Your Temper," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Temper Tantrums Can Be Controlled

Nearly everything said or written on tantrums deals with the baby and tot under 4 or 5. What of tantrums in the child over 5 or 6, even of the child 10 or 15? They do occur in some of these older children. The usual advice in case of the tot two, three or four —to keep calm, do nothing and say nothing, while the youngster is violently enraged, except when this child is endangering persons or property — is good advice when the older child is enraged.

Dr. Garry Myers

When the tantrum in a child 6, 10 or 14 is in relation to a parent, this parent is not only inclined to grow very angry too, but to use angry, sometimes abusive words. And this wordy warfare may go on and on, even reaching fisticuffs.

Such scenes can be truly pathetic, especially between father and son.

OFTEN, TOO, when the older child is enraged, either parent is likely to exhort and lecture to him. No matter how good the content of this parental advice then, which is often whined or shouted, it usually does far more harm than good. The parent is not fit then to give the advice or the child to profit from it.

Besides this, it renders future advice at peaceful times less effective. It builds a wall between the parent and child and destroys desirable relationship henceforth.

Most times, violent and abusive language hurled in rage at the parent by a child 8, 12 or 15, had better be met with serenity and silence. Even if this child is throwing something then, not at any person, it's hardly the time to resort to forceful measures.

It's better to wait till the emotional turbulence has subsided, even for several hours, perhaps, to say anything. Then, at a moment of companionship, the parent might, in quiet persuasive words and tones, lead the child to see the folly of his most recent tantrum and feel the wish to work on himself for better self - control when he begins to feel angry.

HOW WELL you can be able to step into serious emergency when you are sure you should, to stop the violent words or acts, will depend first on your own self - control; then on how well you have established control of this child when he was two, three or four. It's almost impossible to imagine effective use of any necessary controlling measures with the child 6 to 15 which are not dependent on how well he had learned in his very early years to accept No as final.

However, let us remember that while the "Good Book" commands children to obey their parents, it also admonishes us parents not to provoke our children to wrath.

My bulletins, "Tantrums" and "How to Control Your Temper," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

By HAL HUMPHREY

Fair Telecast Seen International Fare

Now that regular international TV broadcasting is about to begin via the new Early Bird Satellite (May 2 and 3 is the inaugural), what kind of programs will be exported and imported?

Hal Humphrey

Paul Levitan thinks tonight's special telecast of the New York World's Fair reopening would have been about perfect as an example of what America should beam to TV viewers abroad. It's on Channel 2 at 7:30 p.m. As director of special events for CBS-TV and producer of the World's Fair special, he naturally is prejudiced.

-:-

"BIG EVENTS of this kind—fairs, festivals, the Pasadena Rose Parade—are of interest to everyone. What fascinates the guy in Iowa about the New York fair also will fascinate the guy in Rome," contends Levitan.

Just how fascinated "the guy in Iowa" will be this time may be arguable. He may have seen NBC's 90-minute "living color" special of the fair's premiere opening a year ago with Henry Fonda, Carol Channing, Fred MacMurray, Lorne Greene (leading a march of 600 musicians) and Cantinflas as guides.

The CBS tour tonight is led by Durward Kirby, Jack Linkletter, Marilyn Van Derbur and Miss Teen-Age America (Carolyn Mignini). It is an hour in black and white. Levitan says there will be 14 TV cameras and a crew of more than 40, but that's no more equipment than he installed at Augusta's National Country Club for the Masters golf tourney a couple of weeks ago.

LEVITAN will put considerable emphasis on the fair's Belgian Village, which he points out was not complete at the opening last year. His guides will not tell viewers that the Indonesian Pavilion has been turned into an international incident, seized by fair president Robert Moses, and is not to reopen.

"That's political," replies Levitan, "and would come under our news department as hard news."

He did not deny, however, that perhaps "the guy in Rome" would be interested in the "Indonesian Incident." CBS always has insisted that entertainment programs and news be separate entities.

NBC WENT BACK to the fair on July 30 last year and had newsman Edwin Newman inventory its "flops and excitements," and for the viewer, especially one planning a trip there, this was a more interesting program than the one on opening day.

If our TV networks export "live" telecasts of the Rose Parade, Mardi Gras at New Orleans and the Miss Universe contest (Levitan has done the latter for seven years) and expects to keep them interesting for the foreign viewer, something more than just pictures will be required.

The special events and news departments of the networks might do well to merge their efforts for such program exports, adding some news value to them, instead of allowing them to look to foreigners as pure propaganda tracts.

THE QUESTION of whether these satellite-beamed programs will include commercials is so far met with a strange silence from American telecasters. Obviously, if they can find sponsors aiming for worldwide markets, there will be commercials.

An airline is sponsoring CBS' World's Fair special tonight and, although it is not an international carrier, conceivably it would buy the program for satellite distribution to acquaint future foreign visitors with its domestic service.

At least in this instance we would not have to hide our heads in shame. The airline's commercials are about as tasteful and inoffensive as any on TV today. They fall into a category known along Madison Avenue as "motivational soft-sell."

What will happen to international relations with our European cousins when we start beaming those headache and detergent commercials at them via Early Bird is something our State Department should be worrying about right now.

Joan Gilson To Play Solo During Concert

Miss Joan Gilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilson of Crockery City Farms, has been selected to play the piano solo for the Ohio University Symphony Orchestra in a concert May 23 at the Athens school.

She was selected from 14 students who completed for the honor. She will play Bethoven's Concerto No. 4.

Miss Gilson, who is doing graduate work in music at Ohio University, will present her recital May 7 at Ewing Hall under the sponsorship of the School of Music.

Her sister, Mrs. Delila Callahan, has been chosen by Boston University as one of five to represent her school in a conference on affairs of international foreign students at Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Callahan is doing graduate work and working on her master degree in psychology at Boston.

Both are East Liverpool High School graduates.

Boarding Costs Discussed Again By Home's Board

James Finley, chairman of the Hancock County Children's Home board, presented a report of a recent meeting held with officials of the West Virginia Department of Welfare concerning boarding costs of children when the group met Monday night at the home on Gas Valley Rd., Pughtown.

It was announced that the Hancock County Court has accepted the bid of the Flaherty-Charnie Insurance Agency of Weirton for insurance on property and equipment of the home. A special committee had been appointed at the last meeting to study six bids which had been received and to present a recommendation to the court.

The board decided to hold two more days of "open house" June 19-20, when the home will be open for tours.

A donation for the Pughtown volunteer fire department was approved.

The next meeting will be May 17.

McNamara Assumes Viet Will Get Soviet Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says he assumes Soviet antiaircraft missiles eventually will be sent to North Viet Nam although they are not known to be there now.

The Pentagon chief spoke to newsmen Tuesday night in Honolulu after two days of conferences on the Viet Nam war. He then headed home.

The defense chief gave a go-ahead for intensified air and sea activity against the North Vietnamese Communists and said the United States intends to give more help to South Viet Nam's antiguerrilla forces.

Last week reports reached Washington that a Soviet antiaircraft missile site was being constructed near Hanoi, the North Viet Nam capital. Last Friday, a State Department spokesman said such a site appeared to be in preparation near Hanoi, but other officials said there was no evidence that any Soviet missiles had reached North Viet Nam.

When the Soviet missile question was put to McNamara in his planeside interview, he replied:

"We have no specific information whether surface-to-air missiles are in North Viet Nam, but we must assume they will eventually be introduced into that country."

Of U.S. assistance to South Viet Nam, McNamara said aid will be increased "above originally planned levels."

"We must seek to overcome the strategic disadvantage the South Vietnamese have versus the Viet Cong in terms of traditional guerrilla-to-guerrilla ratios by adding to the mobility and firepower of these forces."

Specifically, he said more helicopter and close air support is required. He would not say whether more American combat troops will be sent to South Viet Nam.

McNamara said the basis for greater use of the American Navy is the use of sea routes by North Viet Nam to infiltrate men and equipment.

U.S. Navy forces will continue to operate outside territorial waters, he said, but "they will note and detect suspicious vessels, will follow them, will report them to the South Vietnamese navy, who will follow them into South Viet Nam territorial waters and inspect them."

He said the United States also will give South Viet Nam more small craft for this purpose.

Claimed In Virginia

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP) — A former Southwest Ohio educator who had been assistant superintendent of the Arlington County school system here since 1948, has died here following a heart attack.

Dr. Edward J. Braun, 64, died Tuesday. A native of Indiana, he spent his early years in Cincinnati and Hamilton, Ohio.

Baltimore Paper Stops Operation Due To Strike

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore News American announced that it suspended its operations after Tuesday's editions because printers and truck drivers "have refused to cross the picket lines and report for work at the Sunpapers plant."

The announcement, made by William H. Mills, general manager of the paper, only Baltimore competitor to the Sunpapers, said the News and the Sun have a joint contract with the two trade unions involved and the "News American deems such a refusal a violation of the joint contracts. . ."

Members of the American Newspaper Guild struck the Sunpapers last Saturday and the company was forced to suspend its publication after yesterday's evening editions when printers and truck drivers refused to cross the Guild picket lines.

OFF THE RECORD

"Oh, my gosh—today is your birthday."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, April 21, the 111th day of 1965. There are 254 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1836, Gen. Sam Houston and his Texans defeated and captured Mexican Gen. Santa Anna on the San Jacinto River near Galveston. Santa Anna suffered heavy losses and signed an armistice providing for the withdrawal of all Mexican forces from Texas.

On this date

In 1649, the Maryland General Assembly enacted the first law for freedom of worship in the colonies.

In 1831, the Black Hawk War started in Illinois, against the Sauk chief of that name. Young Abraham Lincoln served as a volunteer.

In 1898, the War with Spain began, although the formal declaration fixing the date was not issued until April 25.

In 1910, author and humorist Mark Twain died.

In 1926, Queen Elizabeth II was born.

Ten years ago—Britain's new prime minister, Sir Anthony Eden, was elected leader of the Conservative party.

Five years ago — Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy and Hubert Humphrey attacked the issue of religion in politics in Washington speeches.

One year ago — President Johnson called for a peaceful revolution in the lives of poverty-stricken people of the world.

This 'n That

The four men who served as Secretary of State during President Harry S. Truman's administration were E. R. Stettinius Jr., James F. Byrnes, George C. Marshall, and Dean Atcheson.

In 1962, no sooner had San Francisco retired the last of its Bay ferries — which once carried 40 million passengers a year — than a group of commuters organized their own private ferry service. They provided themselves with coffee in the morning and cocktails in the evening.

Junior Editors Quiz on BOTTLED SHIPS

QUESTION: How did old-time seamen put ships inside of bottles?

ANSWER: It looks impossible to put a ship model, with all it's masts upright, inside a bottle through the narrow neck. Many people conclude the bottles were cut open at the bottom, the ship put in, and the glass plug put back. It's true that this was sometimes done, but the true old salt had another trick up his sleeve, which we show in our picture, and which is still used.

First, the little ship is made outside the bottle. But each of the masts is hinged at the bottom to the hull; a single thread, if pulled on, will hold them all upright (1). Next, the old seaman would put a putty sea inside the bottle, using long, specially made tools. This was quite difficult. Then the ships masts were folded down on the hull (2). when it could be slipped inside the neck of the bottle (3). The ship was pushed down until it was in its right place. Then the putty was allowed to dry, holding the ship's hull firmly. The long thread had been left sticking out of the bottle. When this was pulled on, the masts would all spring up. Holding the thread taut a bit of glue was touched to where it joined with the ship. When a hot wire burned off the excess thread, the little ship in a bottle was finished.

Remodel Your Figure For Spring

Ida Jean Kain

It's spring pruning time. A bulky winter coat can cover a multitude of figure flaws. In a spring outfit, unsightly bulges loom large as life. Those fitting room mirrors are starkly uncompromising.

Perhaps you have experienced this rude awakening. As you view yourself in a new outfit, suddenly you do not see the dress at all — but the figure modelling it. You become acutely conscious of the girdle top roll, a thickened waist and the dreaded spread.

Here's a morale - boosting thought — all that stands between you and a smaller, younger size is 14 to 16 pounds and two inches off the figure controlling measurements — bust, waist, abdomen and hips.

TO SEE exactly where your figure needs remodeling, take the tape measure test. It's symmetry that makes a beautiful figure, and the proportion between measurements makes or mars symmetry.

Measure the bust over an uplift bra, circling tape around back and bringing it together across center of bust, lightly. The normal size of this measurement depends primarily on your glands. However, these tissues are susceptible to fatty deposit and, with overweight, the bosom is apt to be too large. The only way to lessen this measurement is to reduce total weight.

Now the waistline: To get exact area, circle thumbs and forefingers around waist — that's the spot to measure. Circle tape around, but don't squeeze. If waist measures six inches less than the bust circumference, that's only fair. The waist is rightly proportioned at 8 to 9 inches less than the bust.

The abdomen: Circle tape around in back and bring together across the rounded area. For health as well as a good figure, the abdomen should be fairly flat. Ideally, the abdomen should measure from one-half to two and a half inches smaller than the bust. Tone in the all important girdle muscles is essential to a shapely figure.

NO QUESTION about where to measure the hips, just circle tape around the bulkiest part to include the buttocks. The hip measurement will vary with body type. Hips that measure from 1 to 2 inches larger than the bust are average. Ultra-streamlined hips measure the same as the bust. Hips that measure 3 to 4 inches larger than the bust are termed full.

Corrective measures: To reduce, limit calories to 1100 a day as outlined in leaflet Eat To Build Leanness. To slim off inches, ease through a daily exercise routine. In six weeks you will look and feel like a new woman and you'll be able to slip into a dress a size smaller. Happy day!

Send stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness, and Slim Hips In A Hurry. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Officer Pleads 'Not Guilty' To Bribe Charges

CLEVELAND (AP) — Patrolman Raymond J. Uzell pleaded innocent Tuesday when arraigned in Municipal Court on charges that he solicited and accepted a $100 bribe in connection with a traffic accident.

An attorney for the 32-year-old Uzell told reporters his client had taken $100 as payment for damages to a car damaged in the accident Friday. The attorney, Ernest A. Gottermeyer, said Uzell was merely trying to do a good deed.

Police said officers, acting on a tip to a newspaper reporter, set up a "payoff" with marked money at Burke Lakefront Airport last Saturday. Mrs. Carol Witt, 32, of Wickliffe, a friend of the driver of one of the cars in the accident, made the payoff with the marked bills, police said.

One Of Most Wanted Hunted In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—One of the FBI's 10 most wanted men —known as "The Florida Fox" —may be in the Cleveland area, the FBI said Tuesday.

Earl E. Brown, head of the FBI office here, said John William Clouser, 32, is reportedly in the area. Clouser fled a hospital for the criminally insane at Chattachoochee, Fla., in April, 1963. He is a former policeman and considered extremely dangerous.

Clouser is 5-feet, 9-inches tall and weights between 175 and 200 pounds. He has blue eyes and may have dyed his blond hair black. He sometimes wears a beard.

New Officers Are Elected For VFW Post At Chester

The group voted to sponsor two boys to attend the VFW youth camp at Cedar Lake in Ripley in July; two boys and two girls to attend the Hancock County Conservation Camp at Tomlinson Run Park in June, and four girls to attend the Girl Scout Camp this summer.

A donation of $15 was approved for the East Liverpool Little League, $15 for the Hancock County Cancer Society and $25 for the Oak Glen Post - Prom Party.

Refreshments were served by Graham and Clifford Flowers.

Santa Anita Derby winners Hill Gail (1952), Determine (1954) and Swaps (1955) went on to win the Kentucky Derby.
